

IRISH PEACE WOULD HELP ARMS PARLEY

United States Hopes, for Removal of Single Cloud on Anglo-American Relations

DE VALERA WANTS EQUALITY

National Consciousness of British Dominions Expected to be Felt in Confab

Washington.—Although officially the Irish problem is purely a domestic matter as between Great Britain and Ireland, the fact is the agreement between Prime Minister Lloyd George and Eamonn De Valera to enter into a personal discussion on Oct. 11 of the questions at issue has caused much gratification here.

For unquestionably the settlement of the Irish problem will have a bearing on the relations between the United States and Great Britain at the forthcoming Washington conference. Practically all the major problems whether they relate to the far east or the limitation of naval armament turn up on the intimacy of the British and American governments and their readiness to cooperate with one another. An open breach in the Irish question about the time the Washington conference begins would be regarded here as most unfortunate. The prospect of a settlement on the other hand creates even more hopefulness for the larger gathering here of the great powers. With the removal of the single cloud on Anglo-American relations, the Washington government will be in a better position to reach an understanding with the British government on matters of world-wide concern.

Incidentally the task of reconciling Ireland's national aspirations with the association of nations known as the British Empire involves so many points of vital interest to the United States that the solution reached will be carefully studied. For instance, the various dominions of the British Empire have not considered themselves a national consciousness which has manifested itself first in a desire to be represented as nations in the assembly of the league of nations and second in the insistence of several dominions that the British government should not renew the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

It is indeed reported that the Canadian premier notified the British prime minister that if the Anglo-Japanese alliance were renewed, Canada might not consider herself bound by the action. That's an example of how far the national aspirations of a part of the British empire might conflict with an imperial foreign policy and if Great Britain gives to one of her dominions a voice in foreign policy she will be obliged to grant the same privileges to others.

Rumors have reached here that Eamonn De Valera will insist upon a national status in the sense of membership in the assembly of the league of nations alongside the other British dominions. The whole basis of the discussion between prime minister Lloyd George and Mr. De Valera involves the grant to Ireland of certain opportunities to make her influence felt in international councils as well as in getting domestic autonomy. While there is no such thing as a consensus of opinion in official quarters on such a delicate thing as the Irish problem, a dominant view is that Mr. Lloyd George has cleverly renewed the negotiations with the Sinn Fein without causing either side to seem to be surrendering its major demand. Such information as trickles in from reliable sources, however, indicates that the British prime minister is determined not to grant absolute independence to Ireland and that the Sinn Fein leaders now are convinced their wish will not be granted in these negotiations. The hope of solution lies in a referendum by the people who are so weary of warfare that they are said to be ready to approve the settlement which the British government is preparing to offer. The Irish leaders who are committed to national independence may be reluctant to accept but would of course have to bow to the will of the people. The prospects are brighter than ever that the British empire and the United States will enter the conference here on Nov. 11 better friends than they have been in recent months.

FOOD MINISTER TO BE NAMED TO U. S.

By United Press Leased Wire
Berlin.—Dr. Hermann Goerdel, food minister, will be appointed ambassador to Washington. It was definitely stated in majority socialist circles Monday. His early resignation from the cabinet was expected. Considerable conflict support and opposition has been aroused by the announcement. Dr. Goerdel is a member of the Center party. He is one of the few prominent Germans, it was said, who would be acceptable at Washington on their war records. He is wealthy, speaks English and one paper said, "has a sensible wife."

WANTS PROFITS TAX TO CONTINUE

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C.—Extension of the emergency tariff from November 27, the date of the present expiration, until the permanent tariff law is passed, was approved by the house ways and means committee Monday. The proposed repeal of the excess profits tax was vigorously attacked by King. He said that so long as the present economic system permits the making of enormous profits capital and large corporations should pay large taxes in support of the government. King said he favored tax of "ten to fifteen per cent on excess profits."

Leaders Of Chicago's "400" Part Company

Announcement by Harold F. McCormick Confirms Rumors That He and Mrs. McCormick, Rockefeller's Daughter, Separated.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Ill.—Harold F. McCormick and his wife, the daughter of John D. Rockefeller, have separated, it was announced at the millionaire's Lake Forest home Monday. McCormick, who is head of the International Harvester company, in a statement issued to the United Press through his secretary, definitely confirmed rumors that have been afloat ever since Mrs. McCormick exiled herself in Switzerland eight years ago. "Mr. and Mrs. McCormick are living apart," said the statement. "It is not known whether or not there will be divorce proceedings. No steps toward legal action have been taken." The statement concluded, "Mr. McCormick has nothing further to give out."

Mrs. McCormick, who came back to Chicago after her exile abroad, is a psychologist's retreat, evaded all interviews Monday. She arose early—soon after dawn—according to reports and slipped out of the servant's entrance to her palatial town home on the Gold Coast. It was reported she had secreted herself in a nearby hotel but the hotel management denied all knowledge of her whereabouts as did her servants and the detectives guarding the grounds. Mrs. McCormick, in her last public statement made Sunday denied there had been a break with her husband. "Such talk is absurd," she said. "We are very happy indeed."

Muriel, the pretty 19-year-old daughter of the wealthy and socially prominent family, is understood to be with her mother. Mutual friends of the McCormicks, who would not allow their names to be used, said they believed that the desire of McCormick, Mrs. McCormick and their daughter, Muriel, for careers of their own, caused the rift. Mrs. McCormick studied under prominent psychologists while abroad and has been quoted since she returned to Chicago that she was about to establish an institution for a new school of thought.

McCormick has devoted a great deal of his time and money in recent years to the promotion of the Chicago Grand Opera company. He has made several trips abroad to bring back to Chicago the best continental talent. Muriel has given out that her great desire in life is to go on the stage and that she is studying toward that end.

SNOW AND SLEET FOLLOW DROP IN TEMPERATURE

St. Paul, Minn.—Near freezing temperatures throughout this section Monday followed milder snow, sleet and rain on the Iron Range Sunday. Snow and sleet was heaviest north-west of Virginia. The lowest temperature in St. Paul was 27, but it was colder in the northern part of the state.

TAFT ASSUMES HIS DUTIES AS U. S. JUSTICE

Smile of Jurist Beams Down From Supreme Court Chair After Ceremonies

OFFICIALS SEE CEREMONY

Former President Calls His Inauguration "Greatest Day of My Life"

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C.—The famous Taft smile took its place on the dignified bench of the United States supreme court.

The judicial oath of office was administered to William Howard Taft, chief justice of the United States, shortly after the court reconvened by Associate Justice McKenna.

A distinguished assemblage of official Washington was in the court for the ceremony including Attorney General Daugherty, former Attorney General Palmer, Senators Lodge and Borah and a score of other congressmen.

The whole ceremony was marked by solemnity.

Taft opened his service on the court by asking if there were any motions for admission to the bar. Attorney General Daugherty presented Solicitor General Beck, Miss Mabel Willebrandt, assistant attorney general, and other office assistants. "These are members of your official household," Taft remarked with a smile.

The Taft smile then found Senator Borah. He was recognized to move the admission of a friend.

The chief justice called other senators and congressmen by name, as they rose to present various lawyers to the court. He smiled broadly when some one moved the admission of another man named Taft. "This is the greatest day of my life," Taft said after the court session, when friends rushed up to congratulate him again.

ONE IS KILLED IN CHINATOWN FIGHT

By United Press Leased Wire
Green Bay.—Sam Lee, only Chinese resident of this city, is in the hospital here near death as the result of being attacked by a stranger in his laundry Sunday night, who later killed himself.

A telephone call was received at police headquarters yesterday telling of the struggle in the Chinese laundry. On arrival of the police, they saw the stranger had Lee down on the floor, beating him with the butt of a revolver.

Seeing the police advancing, the stranger put the weapon to his head and fired the shot which killed him almost instantly.

Only one clue affords, the police any theory in the shooting. The picture of a beautiful white woman was found in a pocket over the heart of the dead man. The police plan an effort to identify the man through the picture.

Police Monday identified Sam Lee's assailant as Fred H. Hanning, a Russian Pole. They further believe that robbery was the motive of the attack upon the Chinese laundryman. Lee was reported out of danger at noon today.

WOMEN'S CHAMPION IN STATE SENATE IS DEAD

By United Press Leased Wire
Madison, D. C.—James, former state senator and leader in the women's suffrage movement, died at his home at Richland Center Monday. James has been in the farm implement business at Richland Center for many years. He returned to Richland county after the Civil war, after having made a remarkable escape from Andersonville prison.

As a member of the legislature, he was active in putting through measures which made Wisconsin the first state in the union to adopt the women's suffrage amendment.

APPROVE PROMOTION OF PECK TO LIEUT. COLONEL

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C.—The nomination of Major Robert G. Peck, whose promotion to lieutenant colonel of the regular army has been held up because of charges, was ordered favorably reported to the senate Monday by the military affairs committee.

The vote for confirmation was 8 to 2. Senators Capper, Kansas; Spencer, Missouri; and Lenroot, Wisconsin, opposed confirmation.

ROBBERS GET $15,000 CLOTHING STORE LOOT

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—Police here Monday are searching for motor bandits who robbed H. T. Lunt and company, haberdashery of clothing and men's furnishings Sunday night valued at more than $15,000. The police believe the men used motor trucks in escaping with their booty. A lock on the barred safety door had been broken to obtain entry.

Scout Tied Himself Into Next World

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Ill.—Samuel Buffington, 14-year-old high school boy, won high honors in the boy scouts for ability to tie complicated knots with a rope. Samuel was found hanging by a rope in a closet yesterday—dead. The knots in the rope were the difficult kind he had won prizes for tying. Police Monday said they believed he lost his life experimenting.

JURY WILL TAKE HAND IN ATTACKS OF KU KLUX KLAN

Four Are in Serious Condition as Result of Sheriff's Attempt to Stop Parade

By United Press Leased Wire
Austin, Texas.—The Travis county grand jury empaneled Monday, was charged by District Judge James R. Hamilton to make rigid probe of the Ku Klux Klan in this county.

This is the second grand jury to be given such charge by Judge Hamilton, the other jury having failed to unearth any facts in connection with the white robed organization. A recent parade in Austin of the Ku Klux Klan and the tarring and feathering of J. D. Jones in this city last week, together with the riot at Lorena Saturday night, prompted Judge Hamilton to ask for another investigation of the Travis county and Austin contingent of the Ku Klux Klan.

Judge Hamilton insisted such organizations were in violation of law, and said he is determined to go the limit of his authority in breaking them up.

Five Austin citizens within the past 48 hours received alleged Ku Klux warnings.

Klan in Fight
Waco, Tex.—Lorena, the little town near here which was the scene of the battle between members of the Ku Klux Klan and a posse led by Sheriff Bob Buchanan, was split in opposing camps Monday.

Four of those who were shot or stabbed when the sheriff attempted to stop the scheduled parade of the Klan were in a serious condition Monday. They were: Sheriff Buchanan, Louis Crow, laundryman, Policeman Ed Howard, and Carl West. The others were only slightly injured.

Deputy M. Burton of Waco, who accompanied Sheriff Buchanan, Lorena for the purpose of stopping the advertised Klan parade told the details of the battle. He said: "I will not be positive of it, but I am of the opinion that Sheriff Buchanan was shot by a masked man."

Burton declared that after the sheriff went down he emptied his pistol into the crowd which piled on top of him although at the time he was held by six men.

URGE PREMIER TO BE AT ARMS PARLEY

By United Press Leased Wire
London.—Pressure has been brought to bear upon Lloyd George, both from domestic sources here and even, it was rumored, from Washington to persuade the prime minister to personally attend the conference on limitation of armaments proposed by President Harding.

The Daily Chronicle, Lloyd George's unofficial "mouthpiece" Monday stated there was a possibility that the premier would go to Washington.

MILWAUKEE OFFICIALS AIM TO RETAIN POSTS

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—Even though an act of the recent legislature wipes from the law books the statute which says the mayor, city treasurer and comptroller of this city shall hold office for four years, the city officials were of the opinion last night they could not be legislated out of office.

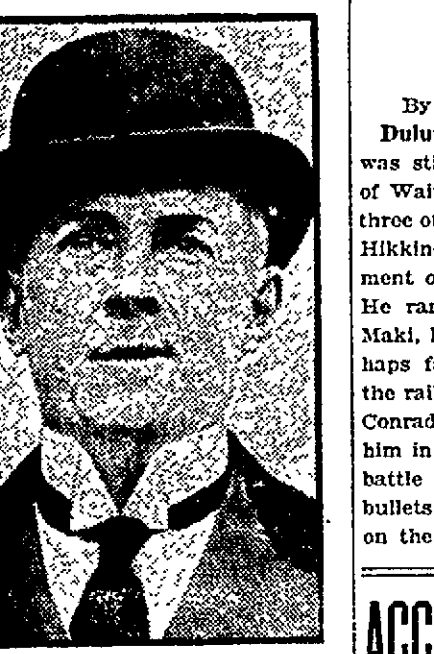

City Treasurer John I. Drew said he had been informed by the chairman of the election commission that no general election would be held until 1924, which indicates the men now in office will hold over until then.

Her Part Was Not Innocent Thought Cops

By United Press Leased Wire
St. Louis, Mo.—Trial of Audrey Munson, famous artist's model, held on a charge of conspiracy to injure public morale was continued Monday until Tuesday. Miss Munson was arrested Saturday when police closed the show. They charged Miss Munson was procuring immoral acts. Miss Munson came to St. Louis in connection with the picture "Lantern" in which she takes the leading part.

Big Noses And Deadly Guns In Fin Battle

By United Press Leased Wire
Duluth, Minn.—The Finnish quarter was stirred Monday over the murder of Waino Pauttu and the wounding of three others here early Sunday. John Hikkinen killed Pauttu after an argument over who had the largest nose. He ran half a block and shot John Maki, hotel owner, wounding him perhaps fatally. Hikkinen ran through the railroad yards and shot Patrolman Conrad Labbing. Detectives trailed him in an automobile and after a gun battle dropped the fugitive with six bullets in his body, twenty miles out on the Thompson Hill road.

ACCUSE PRIEST OF KILLING GREEK IN ATTACK AT ALTAR

Row in New York Church Over Unpopular Sermon Is Broken Up by Police

New York.—Medical science was expected to determine Monday whether the mysterious death of Nicholas Varzakos at the altar of St. Nicholas Greek Catholic church Sunday was murder.

Friends of the dead man told the police he was struck down by a heavy brass candlestick in the hands of the priest, the Rev. Kyriolos Vafiadakis during an altercation.

Other witnesses denied the report the priest struck Varzakos and held to the belief he died because he had profaned the church.

A hasty examination by police surgeons led to the belief that the man may have been a victim of heart disease.

The incident in the church, which is located in the downtown financial district, occurred during special memorial services for a Greek soldier who had died under the American flag.

The Rev. Vafiadakis criticized "mismanagement of the financial affairs of the church" adding that "unable to pay its debts, the church will close its doors tomorrow."

Varzakos, a wealthy fig merchant and member of the board of trustees, ran forward to the altar crying that he wanted to contradict the priest's statements.

The merchant and priest are alleged to have grappled. The sexton, Xenophon Reskakos, is said to have gone to the priest's aid. There are conflicting versions of the encounter. Whether Varzakos sank to the floor, his wife and 15 year old son, George, a choir boy, became hysterical.

Policemen restored order in the church. The priest, sexton and a number of witnesses were to be examined by the district attorney Monday and an autopsy was to be performed on Varzakos's body.

HOTELKEEPER IS FREED FROM MANN ACT CHARGE

By United Press Leased Wire
Madison.—Adolph Carlgren, Iron River hotelkeeper, charged with violation of the Mann White slave act, was found not guilty by a jury in federal court here Monday. The case went to the jury Saturday morning. A sealed verdict was returned at 2 a. m. Sunday. It was opened before Judge Lusk Monday morning.

Spy System Was Weapon Used In Big Steel Strike

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—The alleged spy system employed by steel companies in their mills was described in a supplementary report on the 1919 steel strike by the commission of inquiry of the Interchurch World Movement, made public Monday. The report quoted hundreds of documents on "under cover men" in the steel strike and stated that widespread systems of espionage are an integral part of the anti-union policy of great industrial corporations. According to the commission, spies hired by the steel companies worked like other employees, whispered depressing rumors among them and in daily mailed reports advised "influence" by municipal authorities to close up public meeting places. The report also stated that spies were employed against the commission in its investigations.

Wants to Stop Process of Dodging by Rail Heads and Labor Organizations

MUST ENFORCE OR REPEAL

Congress Will be Asked to Completely Reshape Rail Policy to End Mixup

By Lawrence Martin
Washington, D. C.—Congress must either "put teeth" into the Esch-Cummings railroad law or admit it is a failure and repeal it, Senator Cummins, Iowa, declared Monday.

Complete reshaping of the government's railroad policy, probably at the next session of congress as a result of the strike threat of railroad employees and the many attacks upon the present law, was forecast by Cummins, part author of the measure. The demand for anti-strike legislation will be renewed whether the strike now being threatened occurs or not, Cummins indicated. Provisions penalizing railroads or others defying authority of the railway labor board, limitation of the interstate commerce commission's control over rate making and repeal of the guaranteed returns to the roads will all be sought, Cummins said, when congress takes up the administration's $500,000,000 railroad relief bill.

While chiefs of the railroad brotherhood met Monday in Chicago to determine their attitude towards a nation-wide railstrike, Cummins was preparing to put the senate interstate commerce commission to work on the problem in all its aspects. He has summoned brotherhood representatives and officials of the Pennsylvania railroad. The labor leaders will be asked to explain why they refused to recognize the labor board's authority to order wage cuts. The Pennsylvania's officials will be quizzed on their refusal to obey the boards collective bargaining orders.

Legislation designed to save the existing law from complete demolition may grow out of the hearings before the committee.

Cummins also is preparing an amendment to the law to limit the interstate commerce commission's rate control to interstate rates. The 48 states are parties to a suit now pending before supreme court, attacking the commission's authority to control intrastate rates. In the event the federal commission is upheld, the law will be amended to restrict to the states their previous power over railroad rates, Cummins said.

The law also is under fire from the agricultural bloc in congress, which will demand repeal of the guarantee as a means of forcing freight rate reductions. So long as the guarantee remains, the bloc's members contend, rates must remain at their present high level.

HOPE TO PREVENT NEW BALKAN WAR

Move by Albanians Makes Settlement by League of Nations Possible

Geneva.—Prospects at least of one threatened Balkan war being averted were heightened Monday when M. Fannoli, Albanian delegate to the league of nations assembly, announced his country was ready to accept the delimitation proposed by the ambassadors' council at Paris "provided they were just."

Serbia and Greece already have agreed to abide by the decision of the allied ambassadors and the threat of serious conflict between these countries and Albania over possession of some territory claimed by the latter, seems to have been temporarily removed.

Albanian delegates recently announced to the league of nations assembly that Serbia has seized "Albanian territory" and was bombarding frontier towns. Intervention was asked.

The ambassadors council proposed delimitations of the newly formed state of Albania.

HOLD KENOSHA MAN FOR ATTEMPT TO MURDER

Kenosha.—Frank Piccolo is being held here on a charge of attempted murder, as the result of a fight on the balcony of the home of Frank Dikario, in which Dikario was shot in the hand. Dikario, it is said, was shot when he intervened in a quarrel between Piccolo and a third party.

FIRST SNOW FALL OF YEAR THIS AFTERNOON

Old Man Winter has made his annual bow to Appleton. He arrived shortly after 2 o'clock when a few flakes of snow fell on the city. This early snowfall is of a record around these parts, it is said. It probably will be several weeks, however, before it will be time to get out the old sled.

LAY CORNERSTONE OF NEW HOSPITAL SUNDAY, OCT. 9

Prominent Clergymen and Laymen to Deliver Addresses at New Building

The cornerstone of St. Elizabeth hospital will be laid with proper ceremony at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon Oct. 9.

All of the city of Appleton has been invited to be present at the event which marks an epoch in the progress of the city.

A committee now is at work drawing up a program for the occasion which will be democratic and community wide in its scope. The Rt. Rev. Paul P. Rhode, bishop of Green Bay, will bless the corner stone and will make the principal address of the afternoon. Addresses will be given by clergy of the city and prominent laymen.

Formal invitations are being sent out to pastors of the city and their congregations and to all fraternal organizations and clubs. Citizens in general are invited to attend the dedication. A complete program will be made public within a few days.

Lay cornerstone 2 col read inside. The ceremony of laying the cornerstone of St. Elizabeth hospital is not many years old.

Several tiers of Bedford stone of which the first story will consist are already in place and a good conception of the finished building may be framed by seeing the extent of the work thus far.

The basement walls and the first story to a height of about six feet above the ground are in place and practically all of the tile for the first floor has been laid. The pouring of concrete for this floor will begin early next week if the weather is favorable and the basement columns will be poured at the same time.

"While there has been some delay in the work," said J. H. Temme of St. Louis, who is acting as supervisor of building operations for the Franciscan Sisters, "much more has been accomplished in this period than we had anticipated. Three months ago we predicted that the first slab of stone was in place before snow flies we could be entirely satisfied. Much more than that is already done and with favorable weather for another month a surprising amount of work will be accomplished."

From the first story up, the building is to be constructed of pressed brick in shades which will vary slightly. The brick will be backed with tile, and carved terra cotta will be used in all the ornamental work. Four carloads of granite, 24 carloads of tile and 290,000 bricks are on the ground. It took five carloads of tile to lay the first floor and eight carloads of interlocking tile are already in place.

Plumbers and electricians are hard at work and the floor will be poured just as soon as the pipe and wire connections have been made.

Accurate Measurements
Plans are furnished for the work as it progresses by Victor J. Klutho of St. Louis, the architect. All these plans are exact in every detail, even to the setting of the screws one might say. Many of the measurements are given down to small fractions of inches. "Where the work is being done so accurately," said Mr. Temme, "it is bound to require more time but but we have the assurance that the building will be just what we want it to be. I am satisfied that there will not be a more beautiful or modern hospital building in the state than this one."

FRACTURES SKULL IN FALL AT MILL

Ira Spice of Kaukauna, Near Death After Accident This Morning

Ira Spice, Kaukauna, 35 and married, is in St. Elizabeth hospital with a fractured skull suffered about 8:40 Saturday morning when he fell from a ladder into the flume at the Kaukauna Ground Wood Pulp Co. mill at Kaukauna. There was a slight improvement in his condition at noon and physicians held out hope for his recovery.

Mr. Spice fell about ten feet from the ladder into the flume, probably striking his head on a wheel. There was a few feet of water in the flume. The injured man was rushed to the hospital here.

Miss Emma Hamblett was a business visitor in Normal Saturday.

PREDICT SELL OUT FOR CHAMLEE DATE

"Young Caruso" Opens Community Course Here Monday Night

Marlo Chamlee, hailed everywhere as "the youthful Caruso" will open the Community Lecture and Artist Series program in Memorial chapel, Wednesday, Oct. 5. Reservation of seats for this single concert will commence at 8 o'clock Monday morning at Bellinger's Drug store. No further reservation of season tickets will be made after the close of the sale Saturday night.

According to critics in all parts of the country, Marlo Chamlee is a dramatic tenor of unusual ability. Although he bears an Italian name, he is American born and has spent the greater part of his life in this country. He has made a brilliant success in a wide range of principal roles with the Scott Grand Opera company and with the Metropolitan Opera company.

Chamlee was cast for many of Caruso's parts when Caruso became ill. His success in taking the world-famed tenor's place brought him instantly to fame. He is recognized by important critics as one of the greatest opera "finds" for some time.

Members of the program committee of the series feel that Appleton people are fortunate in hearing Chamlee so soon after his triumph in New York. Indications are that seats will be sold out before the night of the concert.

Many out of town people have reserved seats for parties for the Chamlee concert besides the regular patrons from neighboring cities who have purchased season tickets.

WILL DEBATE ON N. P. LEAGUE AT KAUKAUNA

"Is the Nonpartisan League detrimental to the best interests of the people?"

This question will be the subject of a debate in the auditorium at Kaukauna Sunday evening between Attorney Leo P. Fox, Chilton, supporting the affirmative, and Frank Shoemaker, Appleton, upholding the negative. A number of Appleton people plan to attend the gathering.

FRANCE SEEKS NEW ALLIANCES TO GIVE HER WORLD POWER

Proposed Austro-German Alliance Is Not Looked Upon With Favor by Briand

Copyright 1921, by Ledger Co.

The great public demonstration which was held in Vienna last week to express approval of the movement in favor of union with Germany is significant. It indicates the partial failure of the French policy to bring the segregated parts of the Austro-Hungarian empire under French influence.

The Austrians, particularly the Viennese have no love for Prussia, the state which always must dominate any greater Germany, but they are in such financial and industrial straits that some kind of federation with Germany seems the only way out.

At one time Austria had high hopes of obtaining financial relief by means of the loan which was planned through the good offices of the League of Nations. This loan would not, in the opinion of economists familiar with the situation, have realized the hopes anticipated, and the relief brought by it would have been of a temporary character. Nevertheless the promised help has held in check until now the sentiment in favor of union with Germany.

It is not alone the hopeless financial situation which is stirring Austria to action, but there is the further desire to rid herself of the trade restrictions which her neighbors have thrown around her. Today she has an area about the size of South Carolina and a population of little more than six million. Tomorrow, if united with Germany she becomes a part of one of the world's potential powers.

After the war and up to the present there has been a movement among many peoples toward segregation. This has been carried to such a limit that its absurdity in many instances has been recognized, and there has been recently a reaction and a tendency to swing back in the other direction. Germany would be willing to accept Austria, but there is not as much eagerness for the union as there would be if Austria were not almost wholly Catholic in religion. It might give them the one thing that would give the already powerful central party in Germany more influence and, with coalition with some of the weaker party groups, it might give them the control of the government. There would also be difficulties regarding the questions of their respective public debts and reparations.

France has opposed the linking of Austria with Germany for obvious reasons. She desires a weaker Germany, not a stronger one. If Germany could be segregated into such parts as existed prior to '71 France would be reassured. As the situation now is, France is looking in every possible direction for security. She feels that she either has been or is in process of being deserted by her allies. She therefore is at the moment depending upon her army for present and future protection. She is also reaching out for new allies in eastern and southeastern Europe. She has sought to build a powerful Polish state, but has not as yet succeeded. Poland is showing more vitality than her enemies have predicted, but Poland falls far short of being the ally which France had in the Russia of pre-war days.

With the tendency of Germany and Russia to work in understanding, Poland must always be in a precarious condition. These two strong states could crush her almost overnight and before France could interfere.

Brand's intention to attend the Washington conference has back of it the hope that France's position may be again in some way strengthened. It is not a reduction of armaments that he has in mind so much as the security of France. Germany is disarmed as much as she can be, therefore it is not to bring about a different condition of this nature she will insist upon maintaining an arm, large enough to insure her own safety regardless of other considerations.

PARENT INTEREST DETERMINES PRIZE

First Ward Parent-Teachers' Association Stimulates Attendance

Attendance of parents at the meetings of the First Ward Parent-Teachers' association will determine which room receives the prize for the month, according to a new plan worked out by officers of the association. Parents who attend the meetings will register in each room where they have children in attendance and the room which has the greatest percentage of parent attendance will be given a prize.

The first meeting of the school year will take place at the First ward school at 7:30 Monday evening. After a short program, the music for which is in charge of Mrs. J. P. Frank, the teachers will receive the parents in their school rooms, informally. In this way parents may talk over the problems of their children more readily. All First Ward parents are urged to be at the first meeting.

IRISH PEACE WOULD HELP ARMS PARLEY

United States Hopes for Removal of Single Cloud on Anglo-American Relations

DE VALERA WANTS EQUALITY

National Consciousness of British Dominions Expected to be Felt in Confab

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1921, by Post Pub. Co.
Washington.—Although officially the Irish problem is purely a domestic matter as between Great Britain and Ireland, the fact is the agreement between Prime Minister Lloyd George and Eamon De Valera to enter into a personal discussion on Oct. 11 of the questions at issue has caused much gratification here.

For unquestionably the settlement of the Irish problem will have a bearing on the relations between the United States and Great Britain at the forthcoming Washington conference.
Practically all the major problems whether they relate to the far east or the limitation of naval armament turn up on the intimacy of the British and American governments and their readiness to cooperate with one another. An open breach in the Irish question about the time the Washington conference begins would be regarded here as most unfortunate. The prospect of a settlement on the other hand creates more hopefulness for the larger gathering here of the great powers. With the removal of the single cloud on Anglo-American relations, the Washington government will be in a better position to reach an understanding with the British government on matters of world-wide concern.

Incidentally the task of reconciling Ireland's national aspirations with the association of nations known as the British Empire involves so many points of vital interest to the United States that the solution reached will be carefully studied. For instance, the various dominions of the British Empire have since the war exhibited a national consciousness which has manifested itself first in a desire to be represented as nations in the assembly of the league of nations and second in the desire of several dominions that the British government should not renew the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

It is indeed reported that the Canadian premier notified the British prime minister that if the Anglo-Japanese alliance were renewed, Canada might not consider herself bound by the action. That is an example of how far the national aspirations of part of the British empire might conflict with an imperial foreign policy and if Great Britain gives to one of her dominions a voice in foreign policy she will be obliged to grant the same privileges to others.

Rumors have reached here that Eamon De Valera will insist upon a national status in the sense of membership in the assembly of the league of nations alongside the other British dominions. The whole basis of the discussion between prime minister Lloyd George and Mr. De Valera involves the grant to Ireland of certain opportunities to make her influence felt in international councils as well as in getting domestic autonomy.

While there is no such thing as a conscience of opinion in an official quarter on such a delicate thing as the Irish problem, a dominant view is that Mr. Lloyd George has cleverly renewed the negotiations with the Sinn Fein without causing either side to seem to be surrendering its major demand.
Such information as trickles in from reliable sources however indicates that the British prime minister is determined not to grant absolute independence to Ireland and that the Sinn Fein leaders now are convinced their wish will not be granted in these negotiations. The hope of solution lies in a referendum by the people who are so weary of warfare that they are said to be ready to approve the settlement which the British government is preparing to offer. The Irish leaders who are committed to national independence may be reluctant to accept but would of course have to bow to the will of the people. The prospects are brighter than ever that the British empire and the United States will enter the conference here on Nov.
11 better friends than they have been in recent months.

WANTS PROFITS TAX TO CONTINUE

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C.—Extension of the emergency tariff from November 27, the date of the present expiration, until the permanent tariff law is passed, was approved by the house ways and means committee Monday.
The proposed repeal of the excess profits tax was vigorously attacked by King. He said that so long as the present economic system permits the making of enormous profits capital and large corporations should pay large taxes in support of the government.
King said he favored tax of "ten to fifteen per cent on excess profits."

Announcement by Harold F.
McCormick Confirms Rumors
That He and Mrs. McCormick, Rockefeller's Daughter, Separated.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Ill.—Harold F. McCormick and his wife, the daughter of John D. Rockefeller, have separated. It was announced at the millionaire's Lake Forest home Monday.

McCormick, who is head of the International Harvester company, in a statement issued to the United Press through his secretary, definitely confirmed rumors that have been afloat ever since Mrs. McCormick exiled herself in Switzerland eight years ago.
"Mr. and Mrs. McCormick are living apart," said the statement. "It is not known whether or not there will be divorce proceedings. No steps toward legal action have been taken."
The statement concluded, "Mr.
McCormick has nothing further to give out."

Mrs. McCormick, who came back to Chicago after her exile abroad in a psychologist's retreat, evaded all interviewers Monday.

Eluding interviewers
She arose early—soon after dawn
—according to reports and slipped out of the servant's entrance to her palatial town home on the Gold Coast.
It was reported she had secreted herself in a nearby hotel but the hotel management denied all knowledge of her whereabouts as did her servants and the detectives guarding the grounds.

Mrs. McCormick, in her last public statement made Sunday denied there had been a break with her husband.
"Such talk is absurd," she said. "We are very happy indeed."

Muriel, the pretty 19-year-old daughter of the wealthy and socially prominent family, is understood to be with her mother.
Mutual friends of the McCormicks, who would not allow their names to be used, said they believed that the desire of Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. McCormick and their daughter, Muriel, for careers of their own, caused the rift.

Mrs. McCormick studied under prominent psychologists while abroad and has been quoted since she returned to Chicago that she was about to establish an institution for a new school of thought.
McCormick has devoted a great deal of his time and money in recent years to the creation of the Chicago Grand Opera company. He has made several trips abroad to bring back to Chicago the best continental talent.

Muriel has given out that her great desire in life is to go on the stage and that she is studying toward that end.

TAFT ASSUMES HIS DUTIES AS U. S. JUSTICE

Smile of Jurist Beams Down
From Supreme Court Chair
After Ceremonies

OFFICIALS SEE CEREMONY

Former President Calls His Inauguration "Greatest Day of My Life"

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C.—The famous Taft smile took its place on the dignified bench of the United States supreme court.

The judicial oath of office was administered to William Howard Taft chief justice of the United States, shortly after the court reconvened by Associate Justice McKenna.

A distinguished assemblage of official Washington was in the court for the ceremony including Attorney General Daugherty, former Attorney General Palmer, Senators Lodge, and Borah and a score of other congressmen.

The whole ceremony was marked by solemnity.

Taft opened his service on the court by asking if there were any motions for admission to the bar.
Attorney General Daugherty presented Solicitor General Beck, Miss Mabel Willsbrandt, assistant attorney general, and other office assistants.
"These are members of your official household," Taft remarked with a smile.

The Taft smile then found Senator Borah. He was recognized to move the admission of a friend.

The chief justice called other senators and congressmen by name, as they rose to present various lawyers to the court. He smiled broadly when one moved the admission of another man named Taft.
"This is the greatest day of my life," Taft said after the court session, when friends rushed up to congratulate him again.

ONE IS KILLED IN CHINATOWN FIGHT

By United Press Leased Wire
Green Bay, Wis.—Sam Lee, only Chinese resident of this city, is in the hospital after death as the result of being attacked by a stranger in his laundry Sunday night, who later killed himself.

A telephone call was received at police headquarters yesterday telling of the struggle in the Chinese laundry. On arrival of the police, they saw the stranger had Lee down on the floor, beating him with the butt of a revolver.

Seeing the police advancing, the stranger put the weapon to his head and fired the shot which killed him almost instantly.

Only one clew affords, the police any theory in the shooting. The picture of a beautiful white woman was found in a pocket over the heart of the dead man. The police plan an effort to identify the man through the picture.

Police Monday identified Sam Lee's assailant as Fred Hardnek, a Russian Pole. They further believe that robbery was the motive of the attack upon the Chinese laundryman. Lee was reported out of danger at noon today.

WOMEN'S CHAMPION IN STATE SENATE IS DEAD

By United Press Leased Wire
Madison.—D. G. James, former state senator and leader in the women's suffrage movement, died at his home at Richland Center Monday.
James has been in the farm implement business at Richland Center for many years. He returned to Richland county after the Civil war, after having made a remarkable escape from Andersonville prison.

As a member of the legislature, he was active in putting through measures which made Wisconsin the first state in the union to adopt the women's suffrage amendment.

knots in the rope were the difficult kind he had won prizes for tying.
Police Monday said they believed he lost his life experimenting.

Four Are in Serious Condition as Result of Sheriff's Attempt to Stop Parade

By United Press Leased Wire
Austin, Texas.—The Travis county grand jury empaneled Monday, was charged by District Judge James R.
Hamilton to make rigid probe of the Ku Klux Klan in this county.

This is the second grand jury to be given such charge by Judge Hamilton, the other jury having failed to unearth any facts in connection with the white robe organization. A recent parade in Austin of the Ku Klux Klan and the tarring and feathering of J. D. Jans in this city last week, together with the riot at Lorena Saturday night, prompted Judge Hamilton to ask for another investigation of the Travis county and Austin contingent of the Ku Klux Klan.

Judge Hamilton insisted such organizations were in violation of law and said he is determined to go the limit of his authority in breaking them up.

Fifty Austin citizens within the past 48 hours received alleged Ku Klux warnings.

Klan in Fight

Waco, Tex.—Lorena, the little town near here which was the scene of the battle between members of the Ku Klux Klan and a posse led by Sheriff Bob Buchanan, was split in opposing camps Monday.

Four of those who were shot or stabbed when the sheriff attempted to stop the parade of the Klan were in a serious condition Monday. They were: Sheriff Buchanan, Louis Crow, laundryman, Police man Ed Howard, and Carl West.
The others were only slightly injured.

Deputy M. Burton of Waco, who accompanied Sheriff Buchanan to Lorena for the purpose of stopping the advertised Klan parade told the details of the battle. He said: "I will not be positive of it, but I am of the opinion that Sheriff Buchanan was shot by a masked man."

Burton declared that after the sheriff went down he emptied his pistol into the crowd which piled on top of him although at the time he was held by six men.

MILWAUKEE OFFICIALS AIM TO RETAIN POSTS

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—Even though an act of the recent legislature wipes from the law books the statute which gave the mayor, city treasurer and comptroller of this city shall hold office for four years, the city officials were of the opinion last night they could not be legislated out of office.

City Treasurer John I. Drew said he had been informed by the chair-no general election would be held until 1924, which indicates the men now in office will hold over until then.

company where he was employed. The track is about a quarter of a mile west of the depot and the train enroute to Green Bay, had gathered considerable speed after leaving the station. The engineer and fireman of the locomotive were of the opinion that the man had neither seen nor heard the approaching train as he stepped directly in front of it.

Mr. Schmalz had lived in Kaukauna

SISTERS, TRAPPED BY FIRE, ARE SMOTHERED

By United Press Leased Wire
Detroit, Mich.—Trapped by a fire in their home, two sisters were smothered to death early Monday.
They were Irene Badnick, 4, and Eleanor Badnick, 7.

A twelve year old brother jumped from a second story window with a baby sister in his arms.

FIND BODY FLOATING IN LAKE AT MANITOWOC

By United Press Leased Wire
Manitowoc.—The body of Peter Vanzon, 62, formerly of Milwaukee, was found here early Monday morning floating in the lake. The man in which the body was found, indicated the police believe, that Vanzon had been trying to save himself.
They believe he was stricken with heart trouble and fell into the lake.

Big Noses And Deadly Guns In Fin Battle

By United Press Leased Wire
Duluth, Minn.—The Finnish quarter was stirred Monday over the murder of Waino Pauttu and the wounding of three others here early Sunday. John Hickinen killed Pauttu after an argument over who had the largest nose.
He ran half a block and shot John Maki, hotel owner, wounding him perhaps fatally. Hickinen ran through the railroad yards and shot Patrolman Conrad Labbing. Detectives trailed him in an automobile and after a gun battle dropped the fugitive with six bullets in his body, twenty miles out on the Thompson Hill road.

Row in New York Church Over Unpopular Sermon Is Broken Up by Police

New York.—Medical science was expected to determine Monday whether the mysterious death of Nicholas Varzakos at the altar of St. Nicholas Greek Catholic church Sunday was murder.

Friends of the dead man told the police he was struck down by a heavy brass candlestick in the hands of the priest, the Rev. Kyriolos Vafiadakis during an altercation.

Other witnesses denied the report the priest struck Varzakos and held to the belief he died because he had profaned the church.
A hasty examination by police surgeons led to the belief that the man may have been a victim of heart disease.

The incident in the church, which is located in the downtown financial district, occurred during special memorial services for a Greek soldier who had died under the American flag.

The Rev. Vafiadakis criticized "mismanagement of the financial affairs of the church" adding that "unable to pay its debts, the church will close its doors tomorrow."

Varzakos, a wealthy fig merchant and member of the board of trustees, ran forward to the altar crying that he wanted to contradict the priest's statements.

The merchant and priest are alleged to have grappled. The sexton, Xenophon Reskakias, is said to have gone to the priest's aid. There are conflicting versions of the encounter.
When Varzakos sank to the floor his wife and 15 year old son, George, a choir boy, became hysterical.

Police men restored order in the church. The priest, sexton and a number of witnesses were to be examined by the district attorney Monday and an autopsy was to be performed on Varzakos's body.

By United Press Leased Wire
Madison.—Adolph Carlgren, Iron River hotelkeeper, charged with violation of the Mann white slave act, was found not guilty by a jury in federal court here Monday. The case went to the jury Saturday morning. A sealed verdict was returned at 2 a. m.
Sunday. It was opened before Judge Luzo Monday morning.

SPY SYSTEM WAS WEAPON Used In Big Steel Strike

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—The alleged spy system employed by steel companies in their mills was described in a supplementary report on the 1919 steel strike by the commission of inquiry of the Interchurch World Movement, made public Monday.

The report quotes hundreds of documents on "under cover men" employed by the steel companies worked the steel strike and stated that "widespread systems of espionage are an integral part of the anti-union policy of great industrial corporations."

According to the commission, spies hired by the steel companies worked like other employees, whispered depressing rumor among them and in daily mailed reports advised influenced by municipal authorities to close up public meeting places.

The report also stated that spies were employed against the commission in its investigations.

Wants to Stop Process of Dodg- ing by Rail Heads and La- bor Organizations

MUST ENFORCE OR REPEAL

Congress Will be Asked to Completely Reshape Rail Policy to End Mixup

By Lawrence Martin
Washington, D. C.—Congress must either "put teeth" into the Esch-Cummings railroad law or admit it is a failure and repeal it, Senator Cummings, Iowa, declared Monday.

Complete reshaping of the government's railroad policy, probably at the next session of congress, as a result of the strike threat of railroad employees and the many attacks upon the present law, was forecast by Cummings, part author of the measure.

The demand for anti-strike legislation will be renewed whether the strike now being threatened occur or not, Cummings indicated. Provisions penalizing railroads or others defying authority of the railway labor board, limitation of the interstate commerce commission's control over rate making and repeal of the guaranteed returns to the roads will all be sought, Cummings said, when congress takes up the administration's $500,000,000 railroad relief bill.

While chiefs of the railroad brotherhood met Monday in Chicago to determine their attitude towards a nation-wide rail strike, Cummings was preparing to put the senate interstate commerce commission to work on the rail problem in all its aspects.

He has summoned brotherhood representatives and officials of the Pennsylvania railroad. The labor leaders will be asked to explain why they refused to recognize the labor board's authority to order wage cuts; the Pennsylvania's officials will be quiz-ed on their refusal to obey the boards collective bargaining orders.

Legislation designed to save the existing law from complete demolition may grow out of the hearings before the committee.

Cummings also is preparing "an amendment to the law to limit the interstate commerce commission's rate control to interstate rates. The 48 states are parties to a suit now pending before supreme court, attacking the commission's authority to control interstate rates. The "event of the federal commission is upheld, the law will be amended to restore to the states their previous power over railroad rates, Cummings said."

The law also is under fire from the agricultural bloc in congress, which will demand repeal of the guarantee as a means of forcing freeland reductions. As long as the guarantee remains, the bloc members contend, rates must remain at their present high level.

Move by Albanians Makes Settlement by League of Nations Possible

Geneva.—Prospects at least of one threatened Balkan war being averted were heightened Monday when M.
Fannelli, Albanian delegate to the league of nations assembly, announced his country was ready to accept the delimitation proposed by the ambassadors' council at Paris "provided they were just."

Serbia and Greece already have agreed to abide by the decision of the allied ambassadors and the threat of serious conflict between these countries and Albania over possession of some territory claimed by the latter, seems to have been temporarily removed.

Albanian delegates recently announced to the league of nations assembly that Serbia had seized "Albanian territory" and was bombarding frontier towns. Intervention was asked.

The ambassadors council proposed certain delimitations of the newly formed state of Albania.

HOLD KENOSHA MAN FOR ATTEMPT TO MURDER

Kenosha.—Frank Piccolo is being held here on a charge of attempted murder, as the result of a fight on the balcony of the home of Frank Dikario in which Dikario was shot in the hand. Dikario, it is said, was shot when he intervened in a quarrel between Piccolo and a third party.

FIRST SNOW FALL OF YEAR THIS AFTERNOON

Old Man Winter has made his annual bow to Appleton. He arrived shortly after 2 o'clock when a few flakes of snow fell on the city. This early snowfall is not record among these parts, it is said. It probably will be several weeks, however, before it will be time to get out the old sled.

STUDENTS DEBATE "HONOR SYSTEM"

Lawrence People Believe Present System is Far From Satisfactory

Honor or Prison System will be the subject of debate at Lawrence at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning when four students will discuss the honor system in examinations and all written work. Balloting on the two systems will follow, putting it up to the students whether they wish to do their work on honor or under supervision. For many years, Lawrence college has been run on the honor system of student government, which included an honor statement at the end of each written lesson or examination affirming that the student had received no aid of any kind in writing the paper. Violations of this rule were made, but the feeling against the student who reported violations was so strong, that the system was an absolute failure in many cases.

Students have seen violations of the system, but hesitated to report them because of the student feeling against telling. Attempts have been made to do away with this feeling, but in vain. Upperclassmen and faculty alike feel that some change is necessary, but dislike putting the students back under supervision of instructors.

The freshmen class which has the least background for judgment will sway the vote because of the greater number. The debate and much discussion on the campus and in the dormitories, are serving to inform the new comers of the situation.

SEEK APPLETON GIRL AS FORGER

Fond du Lac police are seeking a young woman who gave her name as Esther Diener and her home as Appleton, for passing worthless checks drawn on the First National bank of Appleton. The checks bore the purported signature of Mrs. E. Galpin of Appleton.

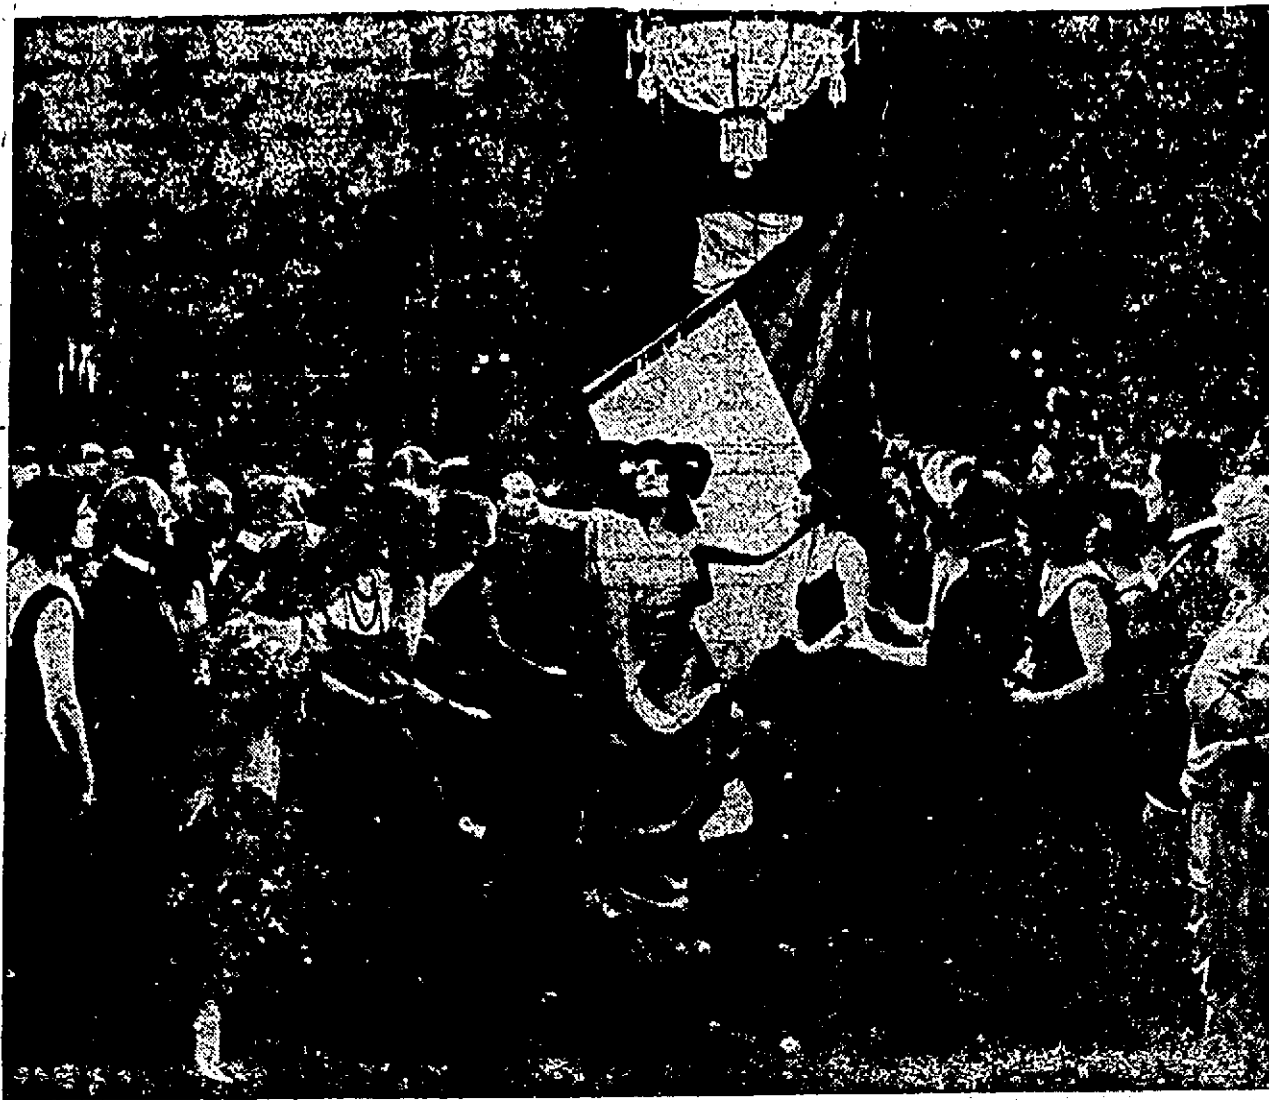

The young woman is said to have represented to merchants that the checks were in payment of salary and that she had not had time to cash them before she left Appleton. The alleged fraud was discovered when the checks were presented for payment. It was said that bank officials there had termed the checks as forgeries.

All the names and writing on the checks was in the same handwriting, investigation showed.

FOUR AUTOMOBILES FIGURE IN WRECK

Four automobiles were mixed up in a collision between McCarty's crossing and DePere Sunday, but no one was seriously injured. The cars were all damaged, particularly a heavy Buick which had its radiator stove in, front wheel torn off and windshield and fenders damaged.

The accident was caused when one of the cars attempted to pass the car ahead. About that time a horse and buggy going in the opposite direction turned out in the same direction and was closely followed by other cars. The buggy escaped damage, but the cars were less fortunate. All of them were quite badly wrecked and were taken to a DePere garage for repairs. The highway in both directions were lined with cars in less than ten minutes after the accident. The identity of the owners of the damaged cars was not learned.

PAPER COMPANY OFFICE FINISHED IN FEW DAYS

The new office building of the Combined Locks Paper Co., formerly the old First National Bank building, will be ready for occupancy within the next ten days. The changes are being made by Martin Bolts and Sons who have closed the front entrance and removed all the partitions. Callers at the office will be required to enter the south door. The business office will be one large room with desks arranged on each side of an aisle. The private office will be located at the south end of the building.

Frank Geph. Drs. George T. Heger and Francis V. Hauch were business visitors in Peshtigo in the interests of the Peshtigo Pulp and Paper Co., Friday.

FINES AGGREGATE $711 FOR MONTH

Although there were only ten prosecutions in the lower branch of municipal court during the month of September, fines and court costs collected amounted to $711.11. Prosecutions and resultant fines from cases of violation of the liquor laws, brought into court as the result of raids, were the factor which swelled penalties to this unusually large sum. Fines collected for violation of ordinances of Appleton amounted to $30 and officers fees totaled $29.05. Fines and court costs for the county in general netted $597.36.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. adv.

WANT US TO EAT LOTS OF LAMB AND MUTTON THIS WEEK

The week beginning Oct. 3 has been set aside as national lamb and mutton week and will be observed as such in Appleton. It has for its purpose the stimulation of the use of lamb and mutton as a regular meat diet in the United States, particularly in the states where lamb and mutton, by climatic and feed conditions, can be profitably raised. Wisconsin is one of them. All local markets will be amply supplied to take care of the trade on this particular week.

MRS. NICHOLSON HEADS DISTRICT MISSION CLUB

Mrs. Harriet Nicholson was elected vice president and Mrs. H. C. Cooley corresponding secretary in the eighth annual convention of the Appleton district of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society at Marinette last week. The other officers are: President, Mrs. Mary Jaeger, Manitowish; treasurer, Mrs. Mitchell Busche, Green Bay. The local society was represented by Mrs. Cooley and Mrs. W. A. Newling.

Fifty delegates from this part of the state attended the convention. The principal speaker was Miss Mae Bell of Africa, who spoke of the work that is being done in that country. Miss Willis Caffrey of Chicago was the evangelistic speaker.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

SCHOOL EXHIBITS TO BE FEATURES OF CLUB CONVENTION

Exhibits of Work by High Schools, Libraries and Others Coming Here

High school art exhibit which is being sent here by Mrs. W. H. Fancher of Racine, for the convention of the Wisconsin State Federation of Women's clubs, Oct. 12 to 14, is one of the most interesting displays to be shown here. A medal will be awarded for the best piece of art, while ribbons will be given as the second and third places.

A committee composed of Prof. Otto Fairfield, chairman, and the Misses Catherine Spence, Bessie Lovet, Adelaide Tolleson, Vivian Morrow and Aimee Baker will be the judges of the work. This exhibit will be placed in the Y. W. C. A. room directly below the stage of Lawrence Memorial chapel.

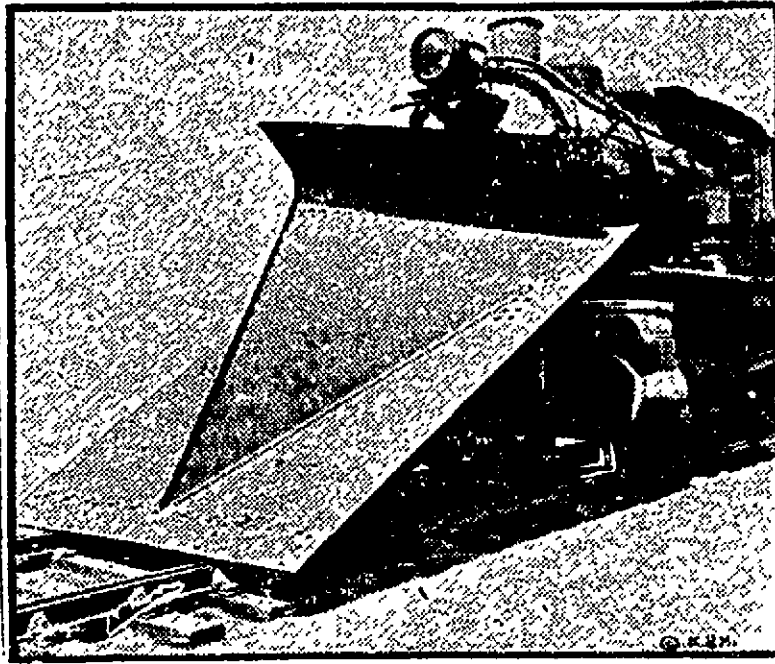

Other exhibits include a library display which will be placed in the Y. M. C. A. lobby under the direction of Miss Long who will be sent here by the library association. The display is made up of books for story telling to children and books which may be of value to women's clubs and organizations. Mrs. Mrs. Couch Wood is sending the child welfare exhibit which will be shown at the Congregational church. Mrs. Edward Hammet of Sheboygan, will have charge of this display.

The department of education will send Miss Maybelle Bush with the exhibit which is to be shown in the high school. Miss Bush will also explain the display at the Thursday morning session of the convention. Miss Rose Swart of Oshkosh has charge of the exhibit as it is being sent out into the state.

Mrs. James Wood is the chairman of the local committee on exhibits which has charge of making all arrangements for the displays. More exhibits will probably be added to the list before the opening of the convention.

Thomas MacNeil, a prominent manufacturer of Sheboygan, and Mark S. Catlin and Max Schwab left on a weekend hunting trip to the northern part of the state late Saturday. Russell Willard of Chicago, is visiting Appleton friends.

Hawaiian Musical Play
"A Night in Honolulu" which comes to the Appleton Theatre to-night is a story of Hawaii, which immediately suggests a myriad of thoughts to the stranger, especially the American. One pictures Hawaii as a land of sunshine, of flowers and of music. One cannot bring the sunshine of Hawaii to our land, nor the flowers in their glorious radiance, but the music is another matter. The Americans have taken the beautiful wistful music of Hawaii to their hearts as they have no other. The quaint "Ukulele" now holds a favored place in our homes. Students of this instrument are as numerous as those of the violin. In "A Night in Honolulu" one may hear the veritable native musicians chant their weird melodies, hear the mournful prayer of death, or the gay care-free hula music. It all has a peculiar fascination for us and is an opportunity not to be missed.

May Robson
May Robson returns to the Appleton Theatre Thursday, October 6th, in an extremely clever and original play called "It Pays To Smile." This story is conceded to be one of the cleverest, published recently

FAMOUS SPEAKERS WILL TALK HERE

Gov. Blaine is Among the Notables on Community Open Forum Program

The program of the open forum of community lectures which will take place in Lawrence Memorial chapel on Sunday evenings will begin, Sunday, Nov. 6. Dr. Samuel Plantz who has charge of the program has already secured Gov. J. J. Blaine, Attorney General Morgan, Pres. Melvin B. Drannon of Beloit college, Dr. Graham Stewart of the University of Wisconsin, and Bishop R. H. Weller of Fond du Lac. Rev. H. E. Peabody is chairman of the council which sponsors the forum.

The Methodist, Congregational, and other churches have combined to form this community forum to take the place of their several Sunday evening services. Speakers on the forum program discuss present day problems. The program was popular last year because of the splendid speakers on many topics of public concern who came here. The program for this year will be worked out on the same basis. The list of speakers is not complete.

CITY HALL PREPARES FOR TAXPAYING TIME

Offices of the city clerk and city treasurer are beehives of industry these days disposing of one of the most laborious tasks of the year. Assessor A. C. Rule has turned over his books to these departments, and the entire force is busy preparing the tax roll and charging off the amounts to each individual's account. The work requires several months and will be completed before the first of the year, when taxpaying time begins.

TEACHERS OF HOME ECONOMICS MEET HERE

The Fox River Valley Home Economics association will hold a convention in Appleton, Saturday, Oct. 8. More than 40 home economics teachers in the valley will attend. One feature of the program is a dinner to be served at the Sherman house. Miss Mabel Burke of the Appleton Vocational school is president and Miss Bell Rogers of Oshkosh is secretary treasurer of the association.

in the Saturday Evening Post. Written by Nina Wilcox Putnam and adapted for the stage by Ethel Watts Mumford.

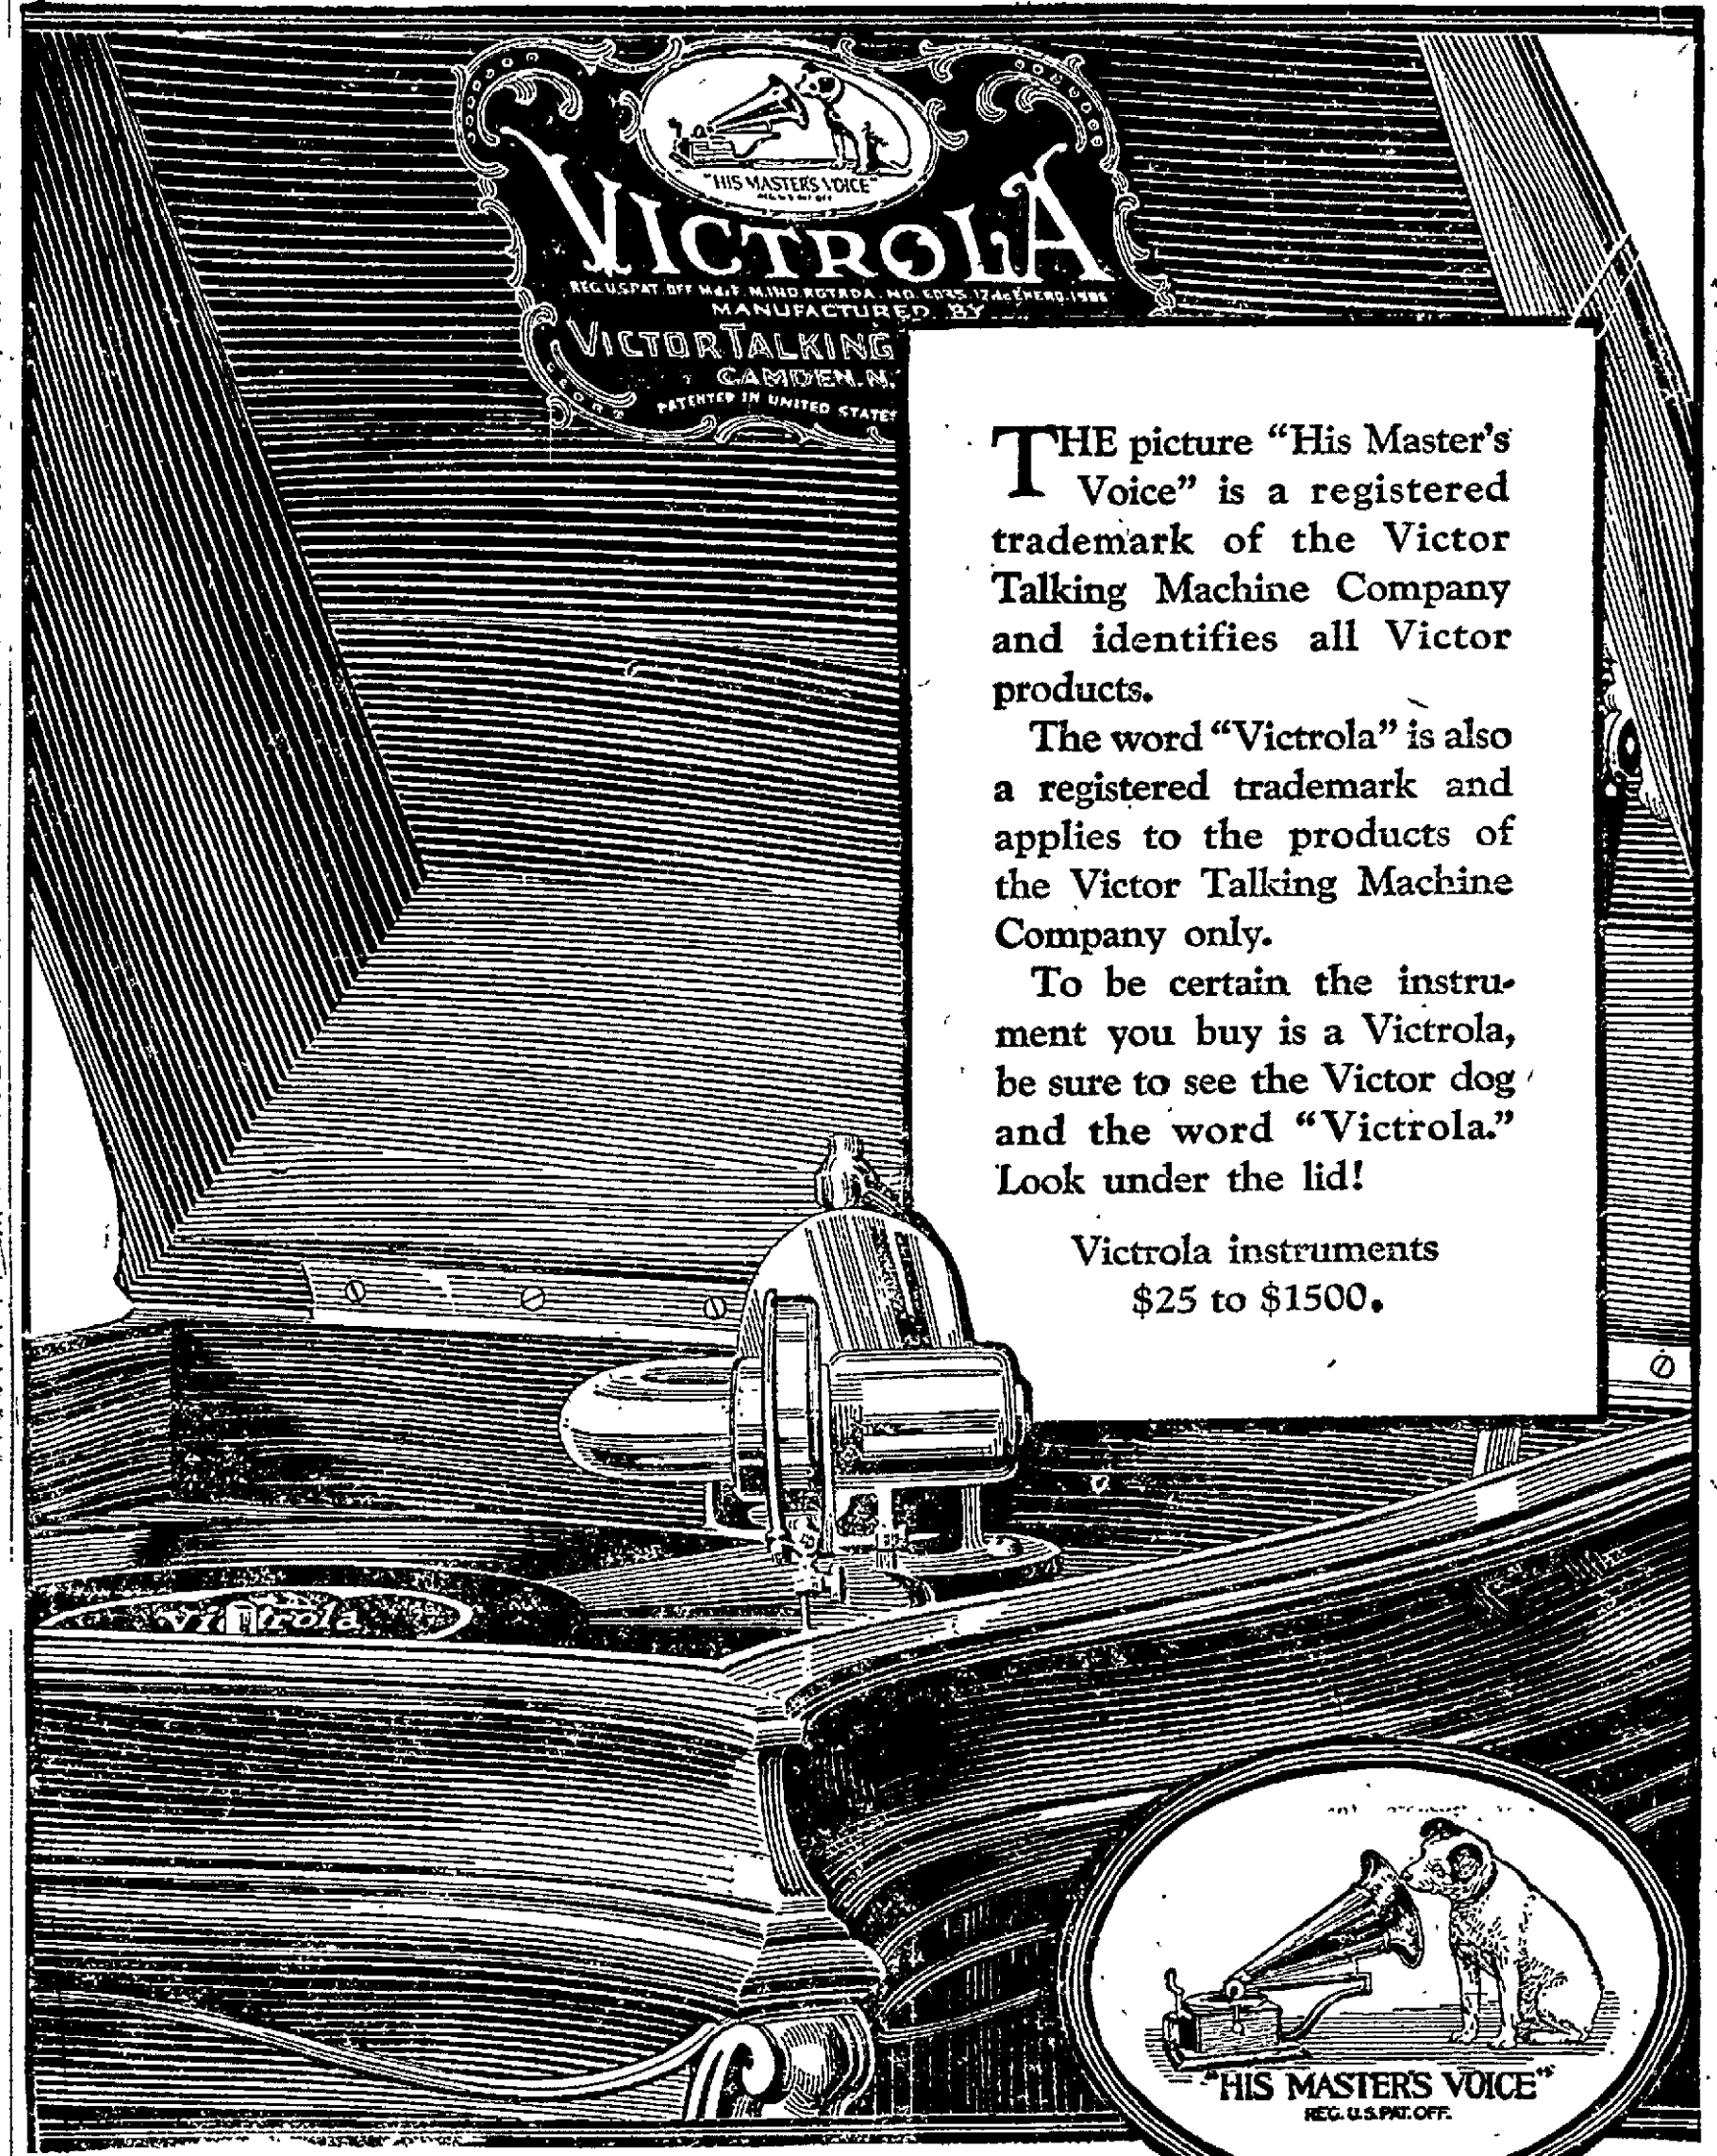

Augustus Pitou, Inc., who have had Miss Robson under their management for several seasons, feel that "It Pays To Smile" is the best comedy Miss Robson has ever had. It's so purely human, so true to the life of the real aristocracy of Boston and it's a glimpse into the sacred inner shrine of these adorable families, so fast fading away in the rush and turmoil of the busy world.

It deals with a maiden lady whose finances are at such a low ebb that she is forced to seek employment. She applies and is engaged for a governess and chaperone to a young California girl whose father is a millionaire but both the father and daughter are uneducated.

They sail on a trip abroad and "Freedom" (Miss Robson) through the kindness of a cousin, who married an Italian Count, they are introduced to the elite of Monte Carlo.

The White House and your house

We guarantee ARCOLA to warm any small house as perfectly as our larger heating plants warm mansions, clubs, cathedrals, and even the White House itself

WE guarantee that ARCOLA has these five advantages which no small-home heating equipment has ever offered:

- 1-Connected with American Radiators it will fill every room of a small house, upstairs and down, with healthful hot-water warmth.
- 2-It will save the waste and labor of a half dozen old-fashioned stuffy stoves.
- 3-It will reduce your fuel consumption room for room at least one-third of the amount consumed by stoves or hot-air furnaces as proved by the experience of thousands of ARCOLA owners.
- 4-Connected with the kitchen tank it will provide an abundance of hot water for washing and bathing.
- 5-It can be installed easily and quickly without the slightest disturbance to the family.

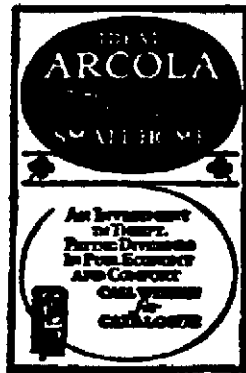

This is no ordinary guarantee. It is offered by the largest manufacturer of heating equipment in the world.

The perfection of ARCOLA, after years of experiment in our research laboratories, means that now, for the first time, the small home can be as perfectly warmed as our larger heating outfits warm clubs, mansions, and even the White House itself.

And the cost of ARCOLA with American Radiators complete is—think of it—no more to install than a stove for each room.

Make up your mind to save a third of what you have been spending for fuel. See ARCOLA in the store of your Heating Contractor today.

The red and yellow card at the right is the sign of a Heating or Sanitary Engineer (formerly called Steam-fitter or Plumber) who can show you ARCOLA. Look for it in his window. It will pay you to consult him twice a year as you do your Doctor or Dentist. To have him examine and report on your heating and plumbing costs little. It may save you a very great deal.

SELF-RELIANCE INSTEAD OF GOVERNMENT RELIANCE

The great war brought republican paternalism to the peak. With the patriotic object of achieving victory, the people pledged all that they had to the government and in turn looked to Washington for instructions and even assistance. The nation was a fighting, working, producing unit, with all of its resources coordinated under centralized authority. The power of the president was greater than a king's.

Decentralization is easier to think than to do. It is not a simple matter to change a political and social habit, and especially a habit which was the culmination of an imperceptible prior-war development. Under both Democratic and Republican regimes we had been taking our class and group troubles to the capital for at least a decade. Anything that seemed to be difficult to do, or which would cost a large amount of money, had been shifted to the government, and as a consequence paternalism was well advanced when the United States was drawn into the vortex of the conflict in Europe.

This comfortable dependence on the central government was, beyond question, mainly instrumental in causing the formation of the agricultural and other blocs which ruled congress in its last session. Manufacturers and business men openly stated, when the commercial depression began, that Washington had caused the reaction and Washington could restore prosperity. The National Unemployment conference is but another phase of the habit of imposing extraordinary problems on the government.

The Harding administration and congress could do nothing more patriotic, nothing more beneficial to the nation and its individuals and interests, than to check with firmness the inclination to depend on Washington for appropriations and help. Duties which properly belong to the government under normal conditions should not be evaded, but vigorous measures should be applied to change the habit of government-reliance to the more republican characteristic of self-reliance.

Organization of social, industrial and other groups, representing a section of society or a line of business, is a form of centralization. These organized bodies exert their influence on the government and foster paternalism. In a republican system paternalism is a parasite. If Washington will repulse tendencies toward paternalism, its course will re-enlighten the nation and revive self-reliance, and it will be more popular than it would be with a weak conciliatory policy.

CONSUMER RESPONSIBLE FOR PRICES

The majority of consumers will smile perhaps at the insinuation of the joint congressional commission of agricultural inquiry that it is the consumers themselves who are to blame for high prices. However, little deliberation proves the conclusion. Goods are marketed in pleasing fashion, and are sold at prices corresponding to the style of packing, because the people want them. If the consumers did not wish to buy certain things, manufacturers would not produce them.

Forty-nine cents of every dollar paid for merchandise, the commission finds, represents packing, transportation, grading, insurance, selling, advertising, display, rent, overhead, wages and delivery, or in other words cost of service. The goods themselves are valued only at thirty-seven cents. Fourteen per cent represents profits.

Consumers do not, as a rule, take price into consideration. The attractive appearance of a box or carton, the convenient size of a package and the looks of the goods take precedence over price. Style, convenience and efficiency of service also go ahead of price.

Consumers who doubt this psychology of prices may acquire a valuable, practical lesson by visiting a grocery and inquiring as to the prices of package and bulk goods of the same brand and quality. They will ascertain that the bulk goods are twenty to thirty per cent, or even more, lower in prices than the package goods.

This is a nation of luxury and ease. Consumers want certain goods, boxed, crated, packed in a certain style, and delivered with a certain fashion. Quality is a secondary matter. And the price is all that consumers, computed as an aggregate of sale, can afford to pay. Manufacturers produce exactly what the consumers wish and regulate their prices to the cost of the goods and the quantity of sales. What consumers want, they are willing to pay for.

The findings of the commission are not new to manufacturers and jobbers, or even to some retailers. But it is doubtful whether manufacturers and business men agree with the commission that "reduction of service costs can come only through a better understanding of the problem by both the middlemen and the consumer, through better organization of the business of distribution by the middlemen, and by the organization of the requirements by the consumer." It appears rather to be a matter of educating the consumer. A great fortune awaits the manufacturer, it would seem, who revolutionizes buying demand by producing trade-mark goods to be retailed attractively in the bulk under advertised brands.

There is an approximate number of consumers who want certain kinds of merchandise and who can afford to pay certain prices for these goods. Manufacturers make the things that the people want and charge the prices that the consumers can pay.

CONSOLIDATION OF RAILROADS

Better public service, reduced cost of maintenance and operation, and equalization of transportation conditions are chief arguments in favor of the plan of consolidating the railroads into nineteen regional groups. The idea has been discussed by railroad executives for many years, but there have been insurmountable obstacles to its realization.

Most of the railroad mileage of the United States is operated at a loss. This has been the principal barrier to consolidation. The large, profitable systems have been unwilling to acquire minor roads, which, for some reason, could not produce sufficient traffic and revenue to meet expenses. Overcoming the losses of these lines would reduce the profits of the acquiring companies. Furthermore many lines have hopeless prospects.

The stronger lines owe their financial ease, not so much to able management, as to the rapid growth and prosperity of the territory which they traverse. Their managements have felt that the thriving carriers were entitled to the gains which fortuitously accrued to them, and were under no obligation to assume the uncertainties, troubles and losses of the less favored roads.

The transportation service would be improved and operating costs would be ultimately reduced by the formation of several logical groups of railroads. A scientific plan of consolidation which would equalize the strength of the larger lines and the weakness of the minor is possible. Whether the suggested consolidations are the best which may be devised is a matter for serious consideration. However, there is no doubt that the grouping of railroads on a competitive basis would be beneficial to transportation and to commerce.

KILL THE UNSIGHTLY WEEDS

Almost all oils are destructive to vegetation, but the mineral oils are the only ones cheap enough for general use. Oils are usually applied at the rate of 200 to 400 gallons per acre.

A high-powered spray pump is very desirable for this work.

Common salt is a cheap and easily obtained chemical and its use for killing weeds in sidewalks and gutters is well known. Salt is applied either dry or in solution. Dry salt is used at the rate of three to ten tons per acre, or a solution of three and a half pounds to the gallon is applied at the rate of 250 to 500 gallons per acre. There is no particular advantage in having the brine heated.

Waste chemicals from industrial works can sometimes be obtained at small cost for weed killing.

The most common waste chemicals are sodium chloride, sodium sulphate, calcium chloride, waste acid, and waste oil.

LEADER FEELS HIS POWER GONE

In full health a stag is always proud of his ability as leader and champion, and waves his glowing flag incessantly, signaling to his family that way. But when he is shot, and down goes his flag in the water, he will save himself if he can. But he does not wave on the others to follow him. Scatter and save yourselves, he would say.

Health Talks

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Noted Physician and Author.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writers' names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered if written in ink and stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

THE SHINE OF YOUTH

Old age is dry, shriveled and dull. When a woman no longer feels that irresistible impulse to powder her nose, her arteries are beginning to calcify. It is youth that shines and complains about it. A shiny nose is a more reliable stigma of youth than a red nose is of total abstinence, for every little while one hears of an individual with a red nose who really does drink.

In youth the sebaceous glands are secreted copiously and it keeps the young skin soft and pink and warm as a skin ought to be. Sometimes nature is so bounteous with this complexion beautifier that she overdoes the matter a little, and the youth is troubled with oily skin, a greasy dandruff or excessive oiliness of the hair, or whiteheads or blackheads or pimples.

For the shiny nose that is merely shiny there is nothing better than powdering with zinc stearate compound by day and mopping the nose each morning with bits of cotton or a soft handkerchief moistened with a weak solution of resorcin, six grains in the ounce of toilet water or bay rum.

For the red nose plain talcum by day and an application without rubbing or mopping, of the following mixture before retiring each night, the mixture being allowed to dry out:

Zinc sulphate 30 grains
Sulphurated potassium 30 grains
Rose water 3 ounces
This should be shaken up well before each application.

When the whole skin of the face is excessively oily, with or without blackheads, the following lotion will generally give satisfaction. It applied every night for a period of ten days or two weeks, and then left off for an equal period or longer.

Sublimed sulphur, compound tincture of lavender, glycerin, camphor water, may run or toilet water, of each, one ounce.

When blackheads are present it is preferable to bathe first for five minutes with a solution of as much boracic acid as the hot water in the basin will dissolve, before applying the mixture.

For a greasy scalp may find this helpful:

Salicylic acid 10 grains
Resorcin 10 grains
Cologne water 2 ounces
Put a few drops into the scalp once or twice daily.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Gout in School Children

Replying to numerous queries, the treatment which has been suggested here for preventing the development of simple gout in school children (and perhaps curing some such gouters) is as follows: Let the child take each day for a period of three weeks three grains of sodium iodine dissolved in not less than one quart of drinking water. The same course may be repeated after an interval of three months to a year, if necessary.

Serum or Bacteria

Do you consider the serum treatment given for prevention of frequent attacks of coryza, acute rhinitis, or what is commonly known as "cold in the head" effective?—B. R.

Answer: Perhaps you mean bacteria treatment (often called "vaccine" treatment). That method is of great value, provided the bacteria employed is prepared from the bacteria found in the individual case.

The Physic Habit

Is it harmful to take a mild laxative every alternate evening? If so, is there anything I can do to discontinue the habit? I sit at a desk all day and get very little exercise.—J. J. R.

Answer: Yes. Yes. Yes. Start in taking a sufficient amount of exercise daily. Glad to send extended advice on overcoming constipation, if you will accompany your request with a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Monday, Oct. 5, 1896

B. T. Gilmore was a Milwaukee visitor. Ben Bissing was confined to his home with a severe cold.

Lindsay Waters of St. Paul was visiting Appleton friends.

Joseph Thomas of Nekeosa was in Appleton calling on friends.

Reserved seats for Eddie Foye were gone like hot cakes at Kamps & Sacksteder's drug store.

H. F. Cochems, who was to speak at Republican headquarters Monday evening, was registered at the Sherman house. (The body of Mr. Cochems, who represented the plaintiffs in the "night rider" cases tried here recently, passed through Appleton last week on his way to Sturgeon Bay, his boyhood home. He died in Colorado.)

Two camps responded to roll call. They were the first of the season.

The Breiterick Bros. syrup mill in Ellington was destroyed by fire. Six hundred gallons of sorghum belonging to patrons was a total loss.

A memorial service was held at the Methodist conference at Stevens Point in honor of members who died during the year. Rev. A. J. Mead read a memorial to the late W. P. Stone and Rev. J. S. Davis a memorial to Mrs. C. B. Bales.

The candidates of the Prohibition and National parties were: Sheriff, Findley Grandey, Black Creek; treasurer, J. B. Farmer, Dale; clerk, A. M. DeForest, Kaukauna; register of deeds, Gilbert Main, Stephentown; clerk of court, D. M. Torrey, Shiocton; coroner, S. B. Armitage, Seymour; superintendent of schools, J. B. Gurnee; assemblyman, first district, Dr. Lamb, Appleton.

The foot ball game between Oshkosh normal school and Lawrence university the previous Saturday was won by the latter team by a score of 24 to 4. Lawrence was represented by Dafer, Babcock, Mott, Holstein, Henbest, Bennett, Lee, Boyd, A. Jolliffe, Kline and W. M. Jolliffe.

REBUCKED FROM THE PULPIT

The pastor of a small parish in a New Jersey town was known far and wide about the country-side for his quaint ways and eccentric habits. He had a small choir which he augmented with boys from the neighborhood. These recruits were sometimes unruly and he did not always find it easy to hold them within the proper bounds.

In the course of a Christmas morning sermon several choir boys began to eat peanuts surreptitiously and the crackling of the shells was plainly audible to the congregation. At first the pastor paid no attention to them, but finally they got on his nerves. Pausing after an impassioned outburst of oratory, he fixed his gaze sternly upon them and thus addressed them in reproving tones: "Boys—your choir boys, I mean. If you must eat peanuts in church, please, oh, please, do not crunch the shells." Then turning again to the congregation, he resumed his discourse.

Government Movies

By Frederic J. Haskin

Ottawa, Canada.—Canada has a branch of government that every progressive country will eventually have—a commercial picture office.

So far, Canada is the first government to advertise itself commercially by the films. A few days ago the announcement came of one of states, Nebraska, opening its official studio to distribute pictures advertising the state but this venture, like most of its kind, depends on state funds to finance it. The pictures are to be distributed free.

The Canadian government offers some of its films free to schools and clubs, but for the most part distributes official pictures through big, well established moving picture concerns, and charges regular rates for them.

They become a part of the programs in the various movie houses all over the country. The idea is that people appreciate and are more interested in something they pay for than something they get for nothing. So the moving picture bureau of the government decided to make its film as good or better than the commercial ones, and to offer it to the trade.

The plan worked. The government productions are in demand. Moreover, the films practically pay for themselves, and as publicity they are invaluable to the country.

The project was started four years ago with the purpose of showing not only people of other countries, but Canadians as well, what Canada is like. It is a well known fact, to quote one instance, that while many Americans go to Algonquin Park in Ontario for vacations, Canadians find it more of an adventure to cross the border and come down to the Maine woods to see a picture of Algonquin Park.

So a picture of Algonquin Park is regarded as novel entertainment among Canadian audiences, just as a moving picture of the Mt. Shasta region would be something new to a large part of a New York audience.

Even the old legend of Canada being largely the frozen north obtains to some extent among southern Canadians. The government film-makers say: "A good deal of what is now regarded by intelligent Canadians as a cold, snow covered land is not barren the year round. The Mackenzie Basin with its short, hot summer of long days is promising winter land. But it takes days to get there, and the country is not opened up, and never will be, so long as people dismiss it as the frozen north. We are taking pictures there and in other regions where pictures, showing real conditions, have never been taken before."

Canada Not All Cold

"There is a frozen, Arctic region in Canada, it is true. But that is not Canada as it has been developed, and as people should think of the country in general. Because so many people do think of it in that vague way the wide variety of climate, scenic effects, cities, and types of people are new and interesting stories to Canadians as much as to others."

Actual returns to a country from film publicity can scarcely be estimated.

The government pictures are generally one-reelers with a story running through them. One may be a scenic picture of old Quebec or Lake Louise. Another is industrial—salmon fishing, for example. And others may have history, a news event, a government activity, or some typical Canadian custom as a foundation.

A government that goes into the film business as a commercial production finds the work of private producers on the work of private producers. The government camera man is in an unexploited field when the films national and government subjects.

The government pictures do not cost extravagant and alarming prices like the fiction films. Scenery and industries are shot free, and when actors are wanted in order to weave a story into the pictures, the bureau calls upon a few people in town who film well and like the novelty of being in pictures. When they are paid for this work, they are on the government roll, and the salaries are typical government salaries.

Look out for the Overcoat Man Hole—It's Open

Because prices have dropped—a whole lot of men are going to make the mistake of paying too low a price for Overcoats.

They are for example going to pay $25. when they should pay $35.—and along about January when their bargains pass their dividends they are going to be a dissatisfied lot of cold citizens.

Why isn't it better to insure your next winter's comfort now by trading safe.

Overcoats $35. to $50. — don't go lower—it's slippery down there. See the "14 1/2" E. & W. Collar in our window. It's a Chipwood.

Q. What building in New York City was the first skyscraper? G. V. S.

A. The World Building built some 30 years ago, was considered New York's first skyscraper.

Q. Is there more than one variety of pomegranate? H. F. M.

A. There are several varieties of pomegranate. They range from fruits classified as subacid to fruits classified as sweet.

Q. What birds besides parrots can talk? J. M. M.

A. Among talking birds are the cockatoo, cockatiel, lory, parakeet, turquoise, lovebird, kea, lorikeet, macaw, conure, amazon, and others.

Q. Did Mrs. Wilson send one of her dresses to the National Museum for the costume exhibition of members of the various President's households? J. T.

A. Mrs. Wilson did send a black velvet dress for exhibition in the National Museum, Washington. It is a simply cut dress, with V neck, draped sleeves, moderately short skirt and train. The trimming is that of jet buttons and tassels; the later appearing on the sleeves.

Q. Will horses eat pumpkins? If so, do they make a nourishing food? C. R.

A. Pumpkins provide a succulent feed for horses, but when they are given, provision should be made for feeds relatively high in nutrients to balance the ration. The feeding value of pumpkins is about two-fifths that of silage and their main use is for improving digestion. Not over eight pounds per day should be fed.

ABSENCE OF FROST IS HELP TO CROPS

Madison.—Growing crops have been favored by the absence of frost and made a further improvement during the last week, according to Joseph A. Becker of the Crop Reporting service here.

Harvested crops standing in the field have been injured to some extent by wet weather. Corn husking, shredding and silo refilling have been delayed. Ear worms are causing considerable damage in the southern counties. Potatoes are making a slow growth while the vines are still green. In all sections, excepting the central counties, digging is under way. Tubers are being damaged by white grubs generally over the state. Winter grains are making excellent progress. Early sown fields are well up. Seedlings of rye continue under favorable conditions. New seedlings of hay are recovering from the drought damage of midsummer. Cabbage is making a slight gain. Harvest has begun of the late types. Root crops, including sugar beets are growing well. Livestock continues to improve with the improvement of pasture.

First Campus Club Meeting

The first meeting of the Campus club was held in the lecture room of the Carnegie library at 3:30 Saturday afternoon. The club is an organization of wives of faculty members of the college and women faculty members. Mrs. L. A. Youtz was elected president to succeed Mrs. Samuel Plantz. Miss Daisy Irzold was elected secretary-treasurer. After the business meeting, tea was served.

Campfire and Scout Hike

Members of the Campfire and Scout council of the Appleton Women's club left Wausau for a hike at 8:45 Saturday morning and hiked along the lake to Clifton, reaching there at 12:30. An impromptu picnic lunch was served as the young ladies carried no cooking utensils or food with them. They made the return trip by auto, arriving in Appleton about 8 o'clock. This hike was the first of a series of "get-together" stunts for the council.

Committee Heads Meet

Followed a Neighbor's Advice and Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vernon, Tex.—"For three years I suffered untold agony each month with pains in my sides. I found only temporary relief in doctor's medicine or anything else I took until my husband saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I mentioned it to a neighbor and she told me she had taken it with good results and advised me to try it. I was then in bed part of the time and my doctor said I would have to be operated on, but we decided to try the Vegetable Compound and I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a dressmaker and am now able to go about my work and do my housework besides. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial as I am always glad to speak a word for your medicine."—Mrs. W. M. STEPHENS, 1103 N. Commerce St., Vernon, Tex.

Dressmakers when overworked are prone to such ailments and should profit by Mrs. Stephens' experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

How To Use Meat

One of the cheapest cuts of beef is the flank steak. If this steak is cooked carefully the tough fibers of the meat are softened and made palatable. There is no waste by bone or gristle and quite as much nourishment as in the most expensive cut.

Most butchers take their knife and score a flank steak before selling it to their customer, but this is easily done by the cook herself. Be careful not to cut too deeply and do not "pound" the meat.

Make a paste of one-half teaspoon mustard, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar and about 3 tablespoons vinegar. Spread this paste over the meat. Put the meat in a large frying pan and cover with an onion very thinly sliced. Pour 1-2 cup boiling water in one side of the pan very carefully. Do not let the water disturb the paste or onion. Cover closely and put in a "slow oven" for at least an hour and a half. When ready to serve, dot with butter and sprinkle with minced parsley.

There will be absolutely no taste of vinegar or mustard, but the meat will be very tender. The vinegar is used to soften the tough fibers rather than give flavor.

Another way to cook a flank steak is to spread it with the same vinegar paste, cover it with a bread stuffing, roll it up and tie it. Then bake it in a slow oven for the same length of time.

Stuffing

One and one-half cups stale bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon salt, hot water.

Mix salt and pepper with bread crumbs. Add melted butter and mix with a fork. Add hot water very slowly, mixing with the hands. The dressing should be just moist enough to stick together but not moist enough to be smooth and pasty. Spread this on the meat and roll up like a jelly roll. Bake in a moderate oven for an hour and a half.

Reckless Driving

J. T. Keating of Neenah was arrested in Appleton Sunday morning on a charge of reckless driving. He was taken into municipal court Monday, pleaded guilty to the charge and paid a fine and costs of $15.00.

LAWRENCE STUDENTS GO TO MADISON TO SEE GAME

Mrs. R. H. Starkey was hostess to a group of Lawrence students who autotied to Madison on Saturday to see the Lawrence-Wisconsin game. The party included the Misses Gwendolyn Jacobs, Frances Emerson, Florence Schneider and Frank Sabish of Fond du Lac, Harry Clark and Clinton McCready. Another group which autotied to Madison included Dean William E. Lindsay, Herbert Mundhenke, Merritt Mitchell, Allen Rice, John Burke and Albert Schimmel. Wallace Nelson, Fenwick Pugh and Charles Luce also made the trip by automobile. Lawrence Pusey and William Draheim made the trip in the "black and yellow striped coodle" which affords much pleasure to those who see it as well as those (and they are many) who ride in it.

MORE ROADS ARE PUT IN SHAPE FOR TRAVEL

Graveling of the stretches of road between Mackville and Stephenville and between Bear Creek and Leeman has been finished and the roads are in fine shape for travel.

The Kaukauna-Sagole road is now being detoured while improvement work is in progress. Repair work on the New London-Stephenville road started Monday.

AUTO THIEVES CUT WAY OUT OF JAIL

Boys Who Stole Car Found Here Are at Liberty—Cut Three Iron Bars

Jailed at Marinette when they returned to their homes last week after abandoning an automobile they had stolen and driven to Appleton, Clifford Evans, Harry England and Hilroy Sauve, were again at liberty Sunday after sawing three bars from their cell window.

The escape of the young auto thieves is believed to have occurred sometime between 11 o'clock Saturday night and breakfast four Sunday morning. Officials throughout the surrounding country were on the lookout for the fugitives Monday.

The stolen car was recovered by Appleton police last Tuesday evening at 799 Drew-st. after C. A. Kauffman had called the officers and notified them that a machine had driven up to the curb in front of his residence about 5 o'clock but that the three young men who had gotten out of it, had not returned two hours later.

Officers watched the machine for some time but the young men did not return. The Marinette police were notified and the thieves were apprehended upon their return to that city.

Charmingly Styled Dresses

of serge and tricotine

that are attracting widespread attention at $16.75

As a special inducement to dress buyers this week, we have grouped one wonderful lot of fine serge and tricotine dresses in navy and brown, at a remarkably low price. Hardly any two of these models are alike or even similar and you may choose from embroidered, braided or button trimmed ones. Note carefully the unusual crushed sashes and ties developed from paulette, cyre and satin ribbons. One of the most noted changes in style for 1921 is the great variety of sleeves. They may be long or they may be short but they certainly must be wide and flowing or elaborately ornamented to show they are new. At least the great difference in sleeves add a touch of individuality to this lot of dresses not often found at like prices. $16.75.

"Unusually Attractive"

is the immediate verdict of all women who are competent to judge, when they inspect this week's showing of fine

$25.00

The modes displayed are positively wonderful and you will be forced to wonder what more you could ask in a dress regardless of the price paid. To be sure some women feel that they must pay a much higher price to be well dressed but there is very little in a high priced dress that you will not find in this price range. Fine all wool cloths, individual styles, faultless workmanship combined in a manner as near perfection as skilled tailors can produce. A choice this week will mean that you get even greater value in our dress department than usual. Certainly nothing better can be found for $25.00.

FASCINATING AUTUMN HATS

especially priced

For this week's selling

$5.00

A new gathering of recently designed and beautifully trimmed hats will greet you in our department tomorrow. We have prepared one large assortment featuring the newest things for Misses and Young Women and this table will be kept filled throughout the week at just one price. Hats will be included in this lot that have been selling for considerably more even in our own department to say nothing of the prices asked elsewhere. You will find velvets and felt combinations with fancy trimmings, many are hand embroidered, some are feather hats. Dozens of them in every new color scheme—shades of Red, Orange, Paradise, the new shade of Fuschia, besides the more quiet browns, tans, blues and black. All features this week only at $5.00.

Adventures of the Twins

Oliver Roberts Burton

BEN BUNNY'S GUESTS

Scramble Squirrel hurried up to his house in the maple tree as fast as his legs could carry him when Ben Bunny told him the mischief that Whizzy Tornado had done. Nancy and Nick, however, followed Ben home to see what sort of a queer family Whizzy had dumped down on him.

Ben went down his stairs into his house under the old oak, and beckoned to the twins to follow. "Imagine my feelings," he whispered, "when I came home after the whirlwind and found Blossom and the children gone, and these creatures here in their place!"

Ben pointed with disgust to something huddled up in a far corner of his front room. The twins peered into the darkness curiously. Ben never kept much light in his house and it was difficult to see.

"They're green," said Ben, "and they have feathers instead of fur, and they won't eat a thing but flies and sunflower seeds. I've searched for sunflower seeds until I'm dizzy. I can't climb the stalks to get 'em, and I haven't wings to fly, and the seeds are not ripe enough yet to fall without being picked. So far Bill Blackbird has helped me out, only he eats nine seeds out of ten and there aren't many left. The crazy things won't touch acorns, and when I try 'em with pine-cones, I wish you could see them turn up their noses. Only their noses turn down like pump spouts and they can't turn 'em up."

"You didn't try us with sugar," came two voices suddenly from the corner. "And we like crackers, too!"

Two green heads popped out from under two green bodies where they'd been folded up. "We like sugar awfully."

"Why they're polly-parrots!" said astonished Nancy. "What are your names and where did you come from?"

"We're Ben and Nick," said the twins.

"You're Ben and Nick," said the twins.

"You're Ben and Nick," said the twins.

"You're Ben and Nick," said the twins.

VETERANS OPPOSE CITY MEMORIAL

Legion Post Wants Funds Used for More Practical Service to War Heroes

Special to Post-Crescent.
New London.—Theodore Kreuke of Readfield was a business visitor in New London Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kaufman and little daughter have left this city to make their home on a farm near Appleton. Mr. Kaufman was night clerk at Elwood hotel.

Miss Elsie Leonardson of the high school teaching force spent the weekend with friends in Stevens Point. At a meeting of the American Legion, post last Tuesday evening, the members went on record unanimously as opposed to a memorial monument, feeling that some more practical expenditure of the same money would bring more lasting benefit.

Ferdinand Schimke and Leo Frolich suffered minor injuries when the truck in which they were riding turned turtle on the road to Hortonville, pinning both men under the truck.

The barn on the John Klingert property with its contents was almost completely destroyed by fire last Wednesday afternoon.

Gust Huettner, who was struck down by an out-of-town car on Beacon avenue last week, and severely injured, is recovering and will suffer no lasting effects from the accident.

Funeral services for the late Matthew S. Gorman were held at the Most Precious Blood church Saturday morning, conducted by the Rev. John Kaster.

Samuel Stevens of Milwaukee was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Nelson Demming, last week.

Miss Esther Cousins of New London and Alvin Elise of Liberty were married at Emanuel Lutheran parsonage Wednesday morning.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ad Spliering. Mr. and Mrs. Elise will make their home on a farm in the town of Liberty.

The marriage of Miss Ruby Close and William H. Numan, both of New London, occurred at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. I. H. Lewis performed the ceremony.

The chicken-pie supper served by Dorcas society at the Methodist church parlors Thursday afternoon and evening was largely attended in spite of the rain.

The Sunday school of Holy Trinity English Lutheran church observed rally day Sunday in honor of the first anniversary of the dedication of the church.

George Polzin, who has assisted Dr. G. A. Ostermeier in his dental office during the past summer, left Friday for Milwaukee to resume his dental course in Marquette college.

A number of New London music enthusiasts spent Wednesday evening in attendance at the Victor artists' concert in Appleton.

The church of the Most Precious Blood has just issued first mortgage bonds amounting to $30,000, about one-fourth of the estimated value of its property including the church, parsonage, sisters' house, parish house and school.

Albert Delzer has begun construction of a house on South Pearl street on a lot purchased from Mrs. Patrick Sullivan.

H. E. Walters has sold his grocery store to J. L. Shannon of Omro, who took possession Friday morning. The store is located on South Wyman street between Pine and Adams.

Between Pine and Adams, on a lot leased from John Schmidt, Mr. Walters left Friday morning for Ashland where he will conduct a grocery business.

Thomas G. Roberts and William G. Madel were Waupaca visitors Thursday afternoon.

The bankers of Waupaca co. will assemble at a district meeting to be held in the new First National building in Clintonville Wednesday afternoon. C. E. Gibson, vice president of the bank, is president of the county association.

A deal was made Friday by which Anton Schernick sold the Elwood bus and the trucks which he has used for baggage transfer purposes, to Raymond Behnke and Oscar Luebke. Mr. Schernick has accepted the position of night clerk at Elwood hotel.

The new teachers and members of the school board were entertained at a picnic at the ledge on Hortonville road last Monday evening. Those members of the faculty who have been on the force during the past year or longer were hosts. Cars were assembled at the school building at 4:30 to convey the picnicers to the scene of activity. Games in which even the staid members of the board participated, and a bountiful supper cooked over a campfire constituted the evening's program. Those present were Superintendent D. N. Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. Hilderbrick and baby, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Walters, Misses Agnes Vincent, Selma Olson, Gladys Hamilton, Blanche Hamilton, Edna Schell, Agnes Hayes, Charlotte Stubevill, Elsie Leonardson, Minnie Myers, Cora Robson, Laura Bovee, Mary Lyon, Edith Yelland, Gertrude Morgan, Marian Skinner, Harriet Donaldson, Miss Jamison, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sauer and Mrs. F. L. Young, Miss Ida Provinske, Mrs. Myrtle Swift and daughter, Bernice, Mrs. F. J. Pfeiffer and H. S. Ritchie.

Miss Minnie Myers spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Seymour. Miss Gertrude Morgan entertained four friends over the weekend at her home on the shore of Lake Winnebago at Oshkosh. Her guests were the Misses Rose Barrett, Marian Skinner, Cora Robson and Marie Berg.

LAWRENCE MEN TO TALK AT KAUKAUNA

Mission Festival is Observed Sunday—Keller Scheduled for Address

Kaukauna.—Vernon Couillard of Lawrence college, will be the speaker at the annual banquet of the senior Christian Endeavor society at 6:30 Monday evening in the church basement. The banquet is to welcome the new officers and members. Elmer Grimmer, president of the organization will give a talk relative to the work which is to be accomplished during the year.

The regular monthly business meeting will be held following the banquet. Several business items will be disposed of and a social hour will follow.

Mission Festival
The annual mission festival of the Reformed churches of the United States was observed by the Kaukauna congregation Sunday. Services were held in the morning in the German language with Prof. W. Beckman in charge. A meeting especially for young people was held at 2:30 in the afternoon at which Prof. W. Lehman gave a talk in which he emphasized the need of young people in Christian work. Evening services were held at 7:30 in the evening with the Rev. Edward Nuss of the Reformed church of Appleton, as acting pastor.

Bible Class Meeting
A social meeting of the men's Bible class of Reformed church will be held Wednesday evening, in the church basement. The Rev. A. J. Sommers of Neenah, will be present to tell the men of the brotherhood of the Neenah church.

Foresters Installation
Wenzel Hassem of Appleton, deputy high chief ranger of the Catholic of Foresters, will install the officers of Holy Cross court, No. 309 at its regular meeting Monday evening in Forester hall. The following men will take offices: Fred Miller, chief ranger; Pat Delvin, vice chief ranger; H. T. Runte, financial secretary; R. H. McCarthy, secretary; E. A. Brewster, treasurer; Henry Minkebig, speaker; Martin Heindl, senior conductor; Alois Block, junior conductor.

Green Bay.—Evidently it requires a truck load of rubles when one is shopping in Russia, judging by the experience of J. L. Levitas of this city. Mr. Levitas sent a bundle of clothing to his brother as soon as he read parcel post shipments were once more permitted. He then received word from his brother the package was held up and would not be delivered without payment of a duty of $5.40 rubles. Rather than have the radicals confiscate it he asked the Green Bay man to order the parcel returned to the United States. This Mr. Levitas would have done, but he learned the American dollar was the equivalent of 40,000 rubles, so he sent his brother a dollar bill and told him to pay the duty and keep the $4,460 rubles change.

LONGER SEASON ASKED FOR HUNTING RABBITS
Sturgeon Bay.—Two hundred Door county hunters have forwarded a petition to the state conservation commission asking that the law on hunting rabbits be changed. The commission is asked to permit hunting after Oct. 1 instead of Oct. 25. It is claimed this would permit a longer hunting season without danger of wiping out the game.

KAUKAUNA LOSES TO HEAVIER TEAM

Electric City Boys Played Fond du Lac Off Feet in First Period

Kaukauna.—Bucking against a football team that outweighed them several pounds to a man, Kaukauna's high school boys were defeated, 19 to 16, Saturday morning at Fond du Lac.

Kaukauna went into the game in a way that took the home players off their feet. In the first few minutes of the game Coach Waterpool's men crashed through opposition but they were halted before they reached the last white line. Quarterback Luckow tried a drop kick which resulted successfully. Kaukauna kicked off and Fond du Lac took her turn in plowing down the field. They reached Kaukauna's five yard line but there they were held for four downs without a gain.

Shortly after that Fondy fumbled and Luckow swooped down upon the leather and carried it 60 yards for a touchdown. Smith missed the kick at goal. The half ended with the score 9 to 0 in Kaukauna's favor.

Fond du Lac went into the game in the second half with a vengeance and in the third quarter crossed the goal line twice and kicked one goal. Ott, fullback, was injured and was taken out. Mueller was shifted from center and a fresh player took the center position. Somewhat crippled by the loss of Mueller in the line, the orange and black once more gave way before the rushes of the Fond du Lac men. In the last quarter they made another touchdown but failed to kick the goal.

Then began a determined effort to score. Smith, Perantean, the freshman half back; Luckow and Mueller took turns at forcing the pigskin through the bulky line. Their efforts ended in a touchdown but their chances of victory were dashed when the final whistle blew just as Smith was kicking the goal.

GETS DAMAGES IN SUIT AGAINST RUBBER FIRM

Kaukauna.—After deliberating for six hours a jury in the case of E. C. Gavin against the Gillette Rubber company returned a verdict for the plaintiff of $2,366.66. Gavin sued for $10,000 because of forfeiture of a five year contract at the end of three years. The defense claimed that the contract was between individuals and not between it and the plaintiff. The contract was with the Chippewa Rubber company, which was merged into the Gillette company.

WHY YOU NEED IRON—

To make you strong and "brave" and put the power into your blood to overcome disease germs

PRACTICAL ADVICE ON HOW TO DEVELOP GREAT ENERGY AND ENDURANCE

The food you eat contains carbon. When your food is digested it is absorbed from the intestines into the blood. When the carbon in your food comes in contact with the oxygen carried by the iron in your blood, the carbon and oxygen unite and by so doing they give off tremendous energy, thereby giving you great force, strength and endurance. Without iron your blood carries no oxygen and without oxygen there is nothing to unite with the carbon in your food, so that what you eat does you no good; you do not get any strength from it—it is like putting coal into a stove without a fire. You cannot get any heat unless the coal unites with the fire.

The strongest weapon with which to prevent and overcome colds, pneumonia, kidney trouble, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact almost any disease or disease germs is plenty of good rich, pure blood, strength, energy and endurance and the greatest energy carrier in the body is organic iron, not metallic iron which people usually take, but organic iron like the iron in spinach, lettuce and apples and like the iron contained in what is known as organic Nuxated Iron, which may be had from almost any druggist.

If you have been taking metallic iron without benefit such is no proof that organic Nuxated Iron will not help you. Nuxated Iron often increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, run down folk in two weeks time. It is such an extremely valuable product that even the Pope at Rome wrote especially of its merits in a communication to the Pharmacopoeia. It has been used and highly recommended by former United States Senators, Members of Congress, Judges of U. S. Courts, many physicians and prominent men. Over 4,000,000 people are now using it annually. Satisfactory results are guaranteed or the manufacturers will refund your money. Sold by all druggists in tablet form only.

A Statement by Mr. Harrington Emerson.

It is clear from our scientific studies that the startling savings of the Napanee Dutch Kitchenet are along three distinct lines:

- 1—Saving of effort.
- 2—Saving of time.
- 3—Standardization of work.

The saving of energy, shown by the large reduction in the number of steps, is very striking. By accurate quantitative measurement, three-quarters of this physical exertion is saved. It is reduced to one-quarter.

Harrington Emerson

Noting distance walked as shown by pedometer after getting a meal.

Saving 509 Steps Getting Lunch is a Part of the National Demonstration of the Napanee Dutch Kitchenet

Will you save 1,592 wearisome steps every day in getting three meals? Will you end the terrible strain of kitchen work on your health and energy?

You can do it easily. This is the most important announcement ever made to housewives. It is a part of a national demonstration now going on everywhere.

Thousands were spent on scientific time and motion studies of the preparation of meals in an average kitchen. These experiments were made under direction of Mr. Harrington Emerson, foremost efficiency engineer, and two famous Domestic Scientists.

Each meal was prepared first without a Napanee Dutch Kitchenet; then with the use of a Napanee. Stop watches recorded the time of each individual operation in the preparation of each meal. Pedometers registered every step taken.

By these scientific studies we learned the exhausting effort that kitchen work demands. We learned how to prevent it. We made astounding discoveries.

521 steps instead of 2,113

We found it took 2,113 steps to get three simple meals without a Napanee. It took the same operators only 521 steps to get the same meals in the same kitchen with a Napanee.

Thus 1,592 wearisome steps were saved. That number out of 2,113! It was amazing. We could hardly believe it.

But Mr. Emerson repeated each individual operation in getting each meal with a different operator to check the accuracy of his results. The proof couldn't be doubted.

Such astounding savings are due to the scientific design of the Napanee and its new and better conveniences. Their value is beyond measure to the hosts of women who end each day distressed by fatigue.

Come today and see the Napanee's scientific superiorities. Learn all the relief the Napanee's amazing value can give you, as women all over America are learning it.

Office Buildings Are City's Striking Need

Attorney J. L. Johns celebrated his first anniversary as a resident of Appleton Saturday, coming here one year ago from Algoma to join Attorney John Morgan in the practice of law.

"In the time I have been here," said Mr. Johns, "I must admit that I have found no better city anywhere in which to do business than Appleton. It is certainly a splendid place in which to live and work."

"I have discovered one striking thing, however, since coming here, and that is the need of offices. Appleton should have several good office buildings, for new business would be attracted to this locality. The city is located just about half way between Milwaukee and Marinette and is convenient to northern Wisconsin and the locality of Manitowish and Sheboygan as well."

"Saturated thus," Mr. Johns continued, "Appleton ought to have more wholesale houses than there are at present. They would be found here if the proper buildings and offices were available."

The attorney believes several buildings of five or six stories would be filled readily if they were erected in the downtown district. He recalled an instance while living in Chattanooga, Tenn., where people were skeptical when the first skyscraper was erected. Its rooms were filled in no time, and two towering office structures were erected since.

"Green Bay's experience proves my point," said Mr. Johns. "When the Minahan building was built, people said they never would fill it. Not only was every room taken, but it was only a short time before the second tall building was under construction. You would find companies coming in here with their offices if suitable quarters could be found. Such a move also would be a stimulus to owners of present buildings to fix them up so they would prove more attractive to renters. More homes would naturally follow this influx of new people."

Brink's Novelty Orchestra at Al. Giesen's Pavilion at Stevensville, Wed., Oct. 5. Bus will leave Pettibone's corner at 8 o'clock.

SEND DELEGATES TO RELIGION MEETING

Dr. Samuel Plantz, Dean W. S. Naylor, Miss Florence Mallory, president of the Lawrence Y. W. C. A. and Lawrence France, president of the Lawrence Y. M. C. ALBANIAN EXHIBIT AT THIRD WARD SCHOOL

Pictures and articles made in Albania were placed on exhibition in the Third ward school Saturday by Miss Hannah R. Gardner, who received them last spring from Miss Ella McGovern, a Red Cross nurse who served in Albania for 13 months after the armistice.

The purpose of the exhibit is for the education of the children of the school who saw it Monday. A number of people visited the school Saturday forenoon and pronounced the exhibit to be wonderfully interesting. The articles on display include clothing, samples of weaving, metal work, photographs and postal cards, samples of fancy work and knitting and other articles.

A. Nielsen of Cincinnati, Ohio, is spending several days at the home of his niece, Mrs. C. Nielsen, Darbyrd.

CHIROPRACTIC

The Modern Spirit of HEALTH

Health Talk No. 41
By James A. Rolfe, D. C.

"How to Keep Well" is the question engrossing the minds of those who believe that it is their inherent right to be well. Because of their search for a means to keep the body in trim and thereby maintain health a readjustment has taken place.

Many of the methods which filled the need for a time have been relegated to the past; but our practice goes on and stands out in contrast through sheer merit. For 26 years it has stood the test, it is gradually enveloping the world with its beneficial influence. That new method of Health is—

CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENT

In the face of criticism, interference and opposition born of ignorance, CHIROPRACTIC is overcoming all obstacles, because it is right. Its practitioners, are numbered by the thousands, and men and women in all walks of life are having themselves adjusted as a means of getting well and keeping well. If it had no merit CHIROPRACTIC would not survive, and being right, it can do no harm to investigate its claims and study its work and methods. Be Health-wise; try CHIROPRACTIC.

HIGH SCHOOL WINS; LAWRENCE LOSES IN FOOTBALL

Highly Touted Squad From Menominee Goes Down By 14-0 Count

Visitors Unable to Break Through Appleton Line—Lose Several Chances to Score—End Runs Result in Long Gains.

Playing good football in all except parts of the first and second quarters, Appleton high school defeated the highly touted Menominee, Mich., team at Lawrence field Saturday afternoon, 14 to 0. Appleton threatened to score three or four times but poor strategy at crucial moments lost the ball twice and intercepted forward passes dashed one chance.

The first marker was pushed over shortly after the start of the second period. The ball was carried from near the center of the field by line bucking, end runs and a few spread plays. Menominee tightened up on the five yard line but over anxiety resulted in a penalty and the ball was given to Appleton on the required three downs to break through the stubborn resistance of the visitors.

The second touchdown was made in the fourth quarter when Tapper passed 30 yards to Brisee who dashed over the line. A few sharply executed rushes through the line, mixed with forward passes carried the ball to within striking distance.

Menominee fumbled the visitors except in the second period. Immediately after Appleton had scored its first touchdown Menominee began executing a series of brilliant end runs which carried the ball into threatening territory but the visitors fumbled frequently and lost the ball when they were in scoring distance.

The Orange and Blue excelled in line smashing and in end runs, but the visitors showed more speed in running around the ends. That method of attack, however, was solved in the second half and the northerners were without a real offensive after that.

Coach A. K. Vincent sent in most of his second string men in the last period and even they were able to play the tired Menominee men off their feet.

Brisee again was the star of the afternoon. The doughy halfback was the most consistent ground gainer on either team. He plunged through the line with a lot of snap and carried the ball well in the open field.

Verstegen Goes Good Zussman, quarterback, and Verstegen, end, ran Brisee a close second in stellar honors. Zussman, in a showy class in returning the ball on punts and in several consequential gains through the line. Verstegen, a freshman, tore through the line for several gains of 20 and 25 yards and in addition played a whale of a defensive game. Bonini outplayed the opposing center in every department of the game, except possibly in passing.

The Electric city men were somewhat nettled after the fluke pass, and they increased their efforts. With the half nearly over, Kaukauna was running down the field pushing all opposition aside like paper. The legion men averaged only two downs to every ten yards. Oshkosh bucked up with the ball on their 15 yard line and held the legionnaires for three downs.

On the last try, Rennie stepped back for a drop kick but the ball was blocked on its way to the posts.

In the third quarter Renschus returned the punt and took his place at right halfback. Schroeder hit the line for a gain of 12 yards but Denzer was tackled for a loss of a few feet on the next play.

Brawls were frequent and it required more than a half hour to play the third quarter. In one instance two men were ousted from the game when they started a real honest to goodness fist fight on the grid. It came dangerously close to being a free for all.

The Lineup—Kaukauna, Rennie, c. Brauer, rg. Ristau, lg. Guschawick, lg. Van Gumpel, rg. Ristau, lg. W. Brenzel, lg. L. Bronzel, rg. Lindauer, c. Reardon, rg. Schrader, rg. Renschus, lg.

Menominee, c. Barker, rg. Thiel, lg. Porter, rg. Howard, lg. Prieb, rg. Schmidt, lg. Shekey, c. Weed, rg. Jensen, rg. Hintz, lg.

Menominee immediately showed fight and for the remainder of the period played Appleton off its feet, carrying the ball into local territory, only to lose it on fumbles.

Vincent's men showed more fight in the third period and kept the ball in enemy territory most of the time. Menominee was forced to punt every time it got the ball, infrequently making first down. It was Menominee's ball on her own 25 yard line when the third period ended. The team failed to gain and on the punt Zussman returned to the thirty yard line. One line play gained only a few feet and then Tapper passed to Brisee who scampered over the goal line for the touchdown.

Thereafter all the play was in Menominee territory even after Vincent began pulling out his regulars. When the game ended Zussman was the only regular in the lineup and there had been several changes in substitutes.

The Lineup: Appleton—Purvis, lg. Havens, lg. Zechacher, lg. Bonini, c. Stark, rg. Fisher, rg. Verstegen, rg. Zussman, c. Barker, rg. Thiel, lg. Porter, rg. Howard, lg. Prieb, rg. Schmidt, lg. Shekey, c. Weed, rg. Jensen, rg. Hintz, lg.

BRANDT ERRORS GIVE WIN TO MENASHA

NEW YORK QUIET AS TEAMS PREPARE FOR WORLD SERIES

Very Little Factional Feeling in Country's Greatest City

By Henry L. Farrell

By United Press Leased Wire

New York.—Two years ago the cops in Cincinnati would pull a stranger around the corner and ask him if he didn't think the Reds were wonderful.

Last year the same guardians of life and limb in Cleveland would hurl at any one with a New York hustle, "wait till the Indians get through with you."

New York, torn between two fires, is talking only:

"Who's going to win the series?"

"There is no distinct factional following with each club like there was back in 1906 when the Cubs and White Sox had their own parks and fans in the 'Windy City.'"

In New York the Giant fans are Yank fans and the Yank fans are Giant fans. It remains for the series to prove which has the greater hold.

Even money prevails in the little betting on the two Manhattan clubs get ready for the annual classic.

Professional gamblers are offering to take his choice. A lot of freak wagers are being made on individual games. Odds of 5 to 4 are offered that Babe Ruth gets a home run during the series.

The influx of fans for the series, always apparent in a smaller city, is not noticeable here. Outside of the talk on the street corners and an occasional word in the subway, a stranger would not know that anything out of the ordinary was on the card.

More enthusiasm was shown over the Yank-Indians series due perhaps to the fact that all New York was behind their one club in the pennant race.

There is no lack of interest in the series but New York is waiting for it in the characteristic blasé manner. There are no pictures of "our champions" in all the store windows. There are no placards around bearing pictures of McGraw and Huggins. The only way New York records their interest is "at the gate" and it is sure to be shown there when the Giants and the Yanks start at it Wednesday.

Forty thousand are expected at each game. The Giants have sold all their boxes and reserved seats, and the Yanks have only a few reserved seats left.

Judge Landis, commissioner of baseball, established his headquarters today at the Commodore hotel. He refused to pick a winner saying it would be a hard fourth series that might go nine games.

Both clubs will work out today and tomorrow on the Polo Grounds. The Yanks will have the field from 11 to 1 o'clock and the Giants will work from then until Manager McGraw decides they have enough.

The Giants will be the home club in the first game Wednesday and will wear their new white uniforms. The Yanks will make their first appearance in new field gray road uniforms. They will then alternate every day.

History repeated itself in the Harvard-Holy Cross football game. Last year, Buell, Crimson quarterback, nosed out the Catholics by a goal from the field and the same Mr. Buell pulled the same little trick against Holy Cross on Saturday, winning the game by the same little score, 3 to 0.

Probably the biggest upset of the gridiron was Glenn Warner's Pittsburg Pizgin donsters had picked Pittsburg to cop collegiate honors this fall. Speaking of surprises, there was another one pulled off in Indiana. Wabash took Purdue into camp 9 to 0. Evidently, the Boilermakers are in for another punk year on the gridiron.

Basketball aspirants of the Wo-mans club held their first tryout of the season at the high school gymnasium Friday evening under the direction of Miss Emily Adams, physical director. Between 20 and 25 young ladies were present and all entered in to the game with an enthusiasm and determination that forebodes success. The plan is to organize four teams. Two teams of old players and 10 new players participated in the game. Another tryout will be held next Wednesday night.

FONDY HIGH WHIPS KAUKAUNA FOOTBALLERS

Fond du Lac.—The high school football team won the opening game of the season today, defeating Kaukauna High school 19 to 16 at the Rupeing athletic field. The contest was begun at 10 o'clock in the morning and finished at noon. The warm weather had its effect on both teams. Offensive work was good. A good sized crowd turned out to cheer the home team to victory.

Catcher Has Hard Job

Whose job is the easiest? Always the other fellows, to hear the average human being tell it. But Frank Frisch, star third baseman of the New York Giants, is not an average man.

Third base is generally conceded to be one of the hardest baseball positions to play. Star third basemen are rare birds.

Yet Frisch says the catcher has the hardest job on the ball club. "There's no argument to it," he says.

"He is on the receiving end of every ball pitched. He must be alert for a bunt dumped in front of the plate. "If there are men on bases, he must not only watch his own end but they do not steal on them, but must aid the pitcher and basemen in watching the runners."

"The position he is compelled to take in receiving is a tiresome one, and awkward, but he must be able to go after fouls and bunts quickly."

"Catching a runner at the plate is more difficult than on the bases, because the batter has to be avoided."

"Why, the catcher has to be almost a whole ball club in himself. "And the best proof that they acquire a wider experience of the game than the other players, is that so many of them become managers after their playing days are over."

But ask the fans of Gotham who is the hardest working member of the "Giants," and the answer would be almost unanimous.

"Frank Frisch."

The Brands hit started in the fifth. Bergerino lofted one over the right field fence for two bases but was caught at third on Beyer's hot shot to Heath. Mudloff followed with a triple and Beyer scored. Durain's single scored Mudloff. A double play nipped whatever chance Menasha might have had in the sixth but Appleton threatened to count that frame. Murphy started by singling but was forced by Wood.

Schultz flied out, Bergerino was passed and then Beyer lofted to deep center for the last out.

A fast double play robbed the Brands of one or more runs in the seventh. Mudloff opened with a double to the fence and went to third on Shott's scratchy hit to Hoffman.

Durain whiffed and then Luedtke hit a hot bouncer to Heath who forced Mudloff at the plate and caught the runner at first.

T. Lammers doubled in the Menasha half of the eighth but was unable to score while Appleton sent two runners home in that inning. Wood then struck out for the first up and then Schultz got a life when Schleski followed with a double which scored Hoffman. The next three men were easy outs. Still another run was counted in fifth. M. Lammers started with a single and went to second when Heath grounded out. T. Lamer lofted a fly to short centerfield and Durain and Bergerino, both started for the ball. Finally Durain grabbed it over Bergerino's shoulders but it got away from him and Lammers tallied.

The Brands hit started in the fifth. Bergerino lofted one over the right field fence for two bases but was caught at third on Beyer's hot shot to Heath. Mudloff followed with a triple and Beyer scored. Durain's single scored Mudloff. A double play nipped whatever chance Menasha might have had in the sixth but Appleton threatened to count that frame. Murphy started by singling but was forced by Wood.

Schultz flied out, Bergerino was passed and then Beyer lofted to deep center for the last out.

A fast double play robbed the Brands of one or more runs in the seventh. Mudloff opened with a double to the fence and went to third on Shott's scratchy hit to Hoffman.

Durain whiffed and then Luedtke hit a hot bouncer to Heath who forced Mudloff at the plate and caught the runner at first.

T. Lammers doubled in the Menasha half of the eighth but was unable to score while Appleton sent two runners home in that inning. Wood then struck out for the first up and then Schultz got a life when Schleski followed with a double which scored Hoffman. The next three men were easy outs. Still another run was counted in fifth. M. Lammers started with a single and went to second when Heath grounded out. T. Lamer lofted a fly to short centerfield and Durain and Bergerino, both started for the ball. Finally Durain grabbed it over Bergerino's shoulders but it got away from him and Lammers tallied.

Get Two Chances.

SHE HAS LOST TWO HUSBANDS THROUGH MINGO MINE WAR

Mrs. Sid Hatfield Pays Dearly for Feuds Between Unions and Owners.

By Norris Quinn
Special to Post-Crescent
(Copyright, 1927, N. E. A. Service)
Matawan, W. Va.—Twice a widow within 14 months!
Wife of two men, both shot to death in West Virginia's bloody mine feud.
That's the tragic history of the proprietress of the little ice cream parlor across from the Matawan railway station.
This woman of 24 was the wife of Sid Hatfield, police chief of Matawan. Earlier she was the wife of C. C. Testerman, mayor of Matawan.
Her deep black eyes sparkle with life. Her dark brown hair is carefully arranged in a modish coiffure. She wears a plain black silk gown.
"No," she said today, "I'm not going to testify when they try the men that killed Sid."
That is, unless Sheriff Bill Hatfield and Governor Morahan promise me safe conduct to and from the courthouse at Welch.
"Or unless Uncle Sam's troops come into McDowell county before the trial starts."
"Why, otherwise, I'm afraid they'd kill me just like they killed Sid!"
Story of Shooting
Then she told for the first time her story of the Welch courthouse shooting which resulted in the death of Sid Hatfield and his friend, Ed Chambers.
Sid went to Welch to answer a charge of being involved in the shooting of Sid Hatfield and his friend, Ed Chambers.
"I went with him and so did Ed Chambers and Mrs. Chambers. Ed went as a witness for Sid."
"Sid wasn't looking for any trouble. He didn't carry any guns, though he had a state permit to carry weapons. He put one gun in our suitcase and gave the other to the deputy who took us to Welch."
"We were walking up the courthouse steps when the shooting started. People say Sid saw C. E. Lively a Baldwin-Felts detective on the steps; that Sid pulled his gun to shoot Lively and that Lively shot Sid in self-defense."
Clears Lively!
Well, I know that Lively didn't shoot Sid!
"Thirteen men on the courthouse steps shot at Sid and there were more than 25 bullet holes in Sid's body when he fell. Sid never knew what had happened."
That's an entirely new story. In every mountain town in West Virginia, at every crossroads store, you'll hear people say that the Welch shooting grew out of a feud between Hatfield and Lively. Lively was arrested in connection with the shooting. He is now out under bond. He was never indicted. The grand jury has not met since the killing.
"I'll never marry again," Mrs. Hatfield said. "You see I married Mr. Testerman when I was 13. He was 10 years older."
"He was killed with 10 others in the shooting at Matawan May 19, 1924, after discharged miners were evicted from their homes by Baldwin-Felts detectives."
"All Loved Sid"
"Then I married Sid. I really loved Sid and can never love another man. Of course, I loved Mr. Testerman, too, but he was more of a father to me than a husband."
"Everyone loved Sid. He was noble and kind-hearted. He gave half he made to the sick and poor. He loaned to everyone who needed money. He gave regularly to churches."
"That's why the mine workers are going to put up a big monument to Sid in Charleston, the state capital, where everyone can see it."
"I'm not afraid of Sid's enemies—so long as I stay here. Because—"
And Mrs. Hatfield glanced at a revolver on the counter behind the soda fountain.

WANT ENGLAND TO FREE PRISONERS

Release of 4000 Sinn Feiners to be Asked by Irish as Peace Condition

By United Press Leased Wire
Dublin—Release of four thousand interned Sinn Feiners captured and imprisoned by crown forces during the fighting in Ireland since the 1916 rebellion will be demanded by Arthur Griffith, in the name of the Irish republic, as a preliminary condition of peace, it was understood here Monday.
When the Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries go to London for the proposed conference with a British cabinet committee, seeking an Irish solution, the growing sentiment of Irish people that these "prisoners of war" should be freed, will be insisted upon, it was believed.
The Sinn Fein delegation is to leave here on the night of October 10.

FEAR WEST HIT BY SERIOUS FLOODS

Los Angeles, Calif.—Flood conditions in the Palo Verde and Coachella valleys of southern California were serious Monday, according to meagre reports received here by railroad officials.
The Western Union, operating the only commercial telegraph wire into the Blythe district, reported that it's line had failed.
No mail has been received at Blythe since Friday morning.
The Santa Fe and California Southern railroads reported traffic badly hampered by scores of washouts.
Scores of families have fled from their homes before the rising flood waters, which have done heavy damage to ripening cotton crops.
The flood was started by cloudbursts in the desert northwest of Blythe.

BELOIT COLORED TRIO UP IN COURT

Madison—Monday was Beloit day in federal court.
Mary Sterling, Mrs. Lauretta Jones and Herbert Jones, all colored, all of Beloit, appeared before Judge C. Z. Luce to answer to charges of violations of the United States prohibition laws.
Mrs. Jones indicated her desire to plead guilty. Judge Luce suspended sentence until after the disposition of the case of her husband, Herbert, whom United States Attorney Daugherty characterized as more of an offender.
On account of the fact that Mrs. Jones was a reluctant party in the transaction and that this was her only offense, her attorney asked for leniency. Daugherty recommended that only a fine be imposed.
The case of Lauretta's spouse, also charged with having maintained in his possession and maintaining a building, a nuisance, went over until Monday afternoon. Herbert had entered a plea of not guilty.
Charges against Elizabeth Jenkins, Beloit, who was indicted about two years ago for sending nonmailable matter through the mails, was dismissed by Judge Luce on motion of the United States attorney.

ACTIVITIES START AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Tonight's the night. The night for what? For things to begin in the recreation department of the Appleton Woman's club. All girls who signed up for gymnasium classes will meet at 7:15 in the high school gymnasium. Class periods will be dispensed with for the first meeting and all classes will meet together at 7:15.
All drama club girls will meet at the Woman's club at 7:15 Monday night for a short committee meeting. Girls who have signed up for bowling will meet on the nights for which they have signed this week. Teams have already been formed for Monday and Tuesday nights on Arcade alleys, Monday and Wednesday on Eagle alleys. Most of these teams are small and have room for more girls while other teams will be formed on Thursday and Friday evenings.
The first meeting of the girls who have signed up for Social Thursday club will take place on Oct. 13.

CHAMLEE ATTRACTS RECORD AUDIENCE

Youthful Singer Sure to Have Big Crowd in Lawrence Chapel

Pittie Sandborn, a noted musical critic, said after hearing Mario Chamlee, who will open the community Lecture and Artist series here Oct. 5, that every once in a while a "young Caruso" comes to town, that he sings and perhaps never sings again in New York. Not so with Chamlee, who was hailed by all critics after his debut in Tosca as having a tenor voice which was essentially lyric in calibre with warm and mellow tones in the middle register.
After his debut in "Tosca" which placed Chamlee at a great disadvantage because it was a role which Caruso made a great personal favorite, New York critics made very favorable statements about his voice. Chamlee is still young, having interrupted his musical study, most of which he has received in America, to serve two years in the war, and for that reason his voice will have many years in which to develop the round and full qualities of the voice which he is predicted to succeed.
The single seat sale is much larger than was expected when the season ticket reservation closed on Saturday night because there were more season tickets sold than ever before. By Monday noon, every indication pointed to a completely sold out house for the concert, which opens the best program ever been offered to the community.

You Can Make Clothes Now Smart Enough for Any Occasion! Suggesting Three Appropriate Styles In Autumn's New Materials!

ALMOST every woman needs, at the beginning of the season, a new Street Dress, a Silk Frock, and an Evening Gown. Now with the help of McCall's New Pattern all three may be had for a song!
Each Dress, though you make it yourself, will have the smartness that's so admired everywhere. For there's no fear of a "home-made look" when you use the pattern with "printed" advantages.
Successful sewing, whether Wash Suits or Plaid Mackinaws for Boys, Serge School Frocks or Woolen Wraps for Girls, tailored or fluffy gowns for yourself, nowadays depends on the McCall "Printed" Pattern. It's the only Pattern printed to give accuracy in fitting and style-making.

The New McCall Pattern 2400 is effective in any of the Crepe Silk weaves, Serge or Tricotine. New McCall Pattern 2404 is a beautiful affair of your most becoming color, Taffeta, Charmeuse ororgette. New McCall Pattern 2407 could be made of Velvet, Jersey or Broadcloth. Select more new styles just out in the

"Somebody to see you!"

If everybody with something to interest you should come and ring your bell, what a nuisance it would be! Think of the swarming, jostling crowd, the stamping of feet on your porch and carpets!
Every day we know of many callers who come to see you. They never jangle the bell—they don't take up your whole day trying to get your attention. Instead, they do it in a way that is most considerate of your privacy and your convenience. They advertise in your newspaper.
In this way you have only to listen to those you know at a glance have something that interests you. They make it short, too, so you can gather quickly just what you want to know. You can receive and hear them all without noise or confusion in comparatively few minutes.
In fairness to yourself look over all the advertisements. The smallest and the largest — you never can be sure which one will tell something you really want to know.

BELOIT COLORED TRIO UP IN COURT

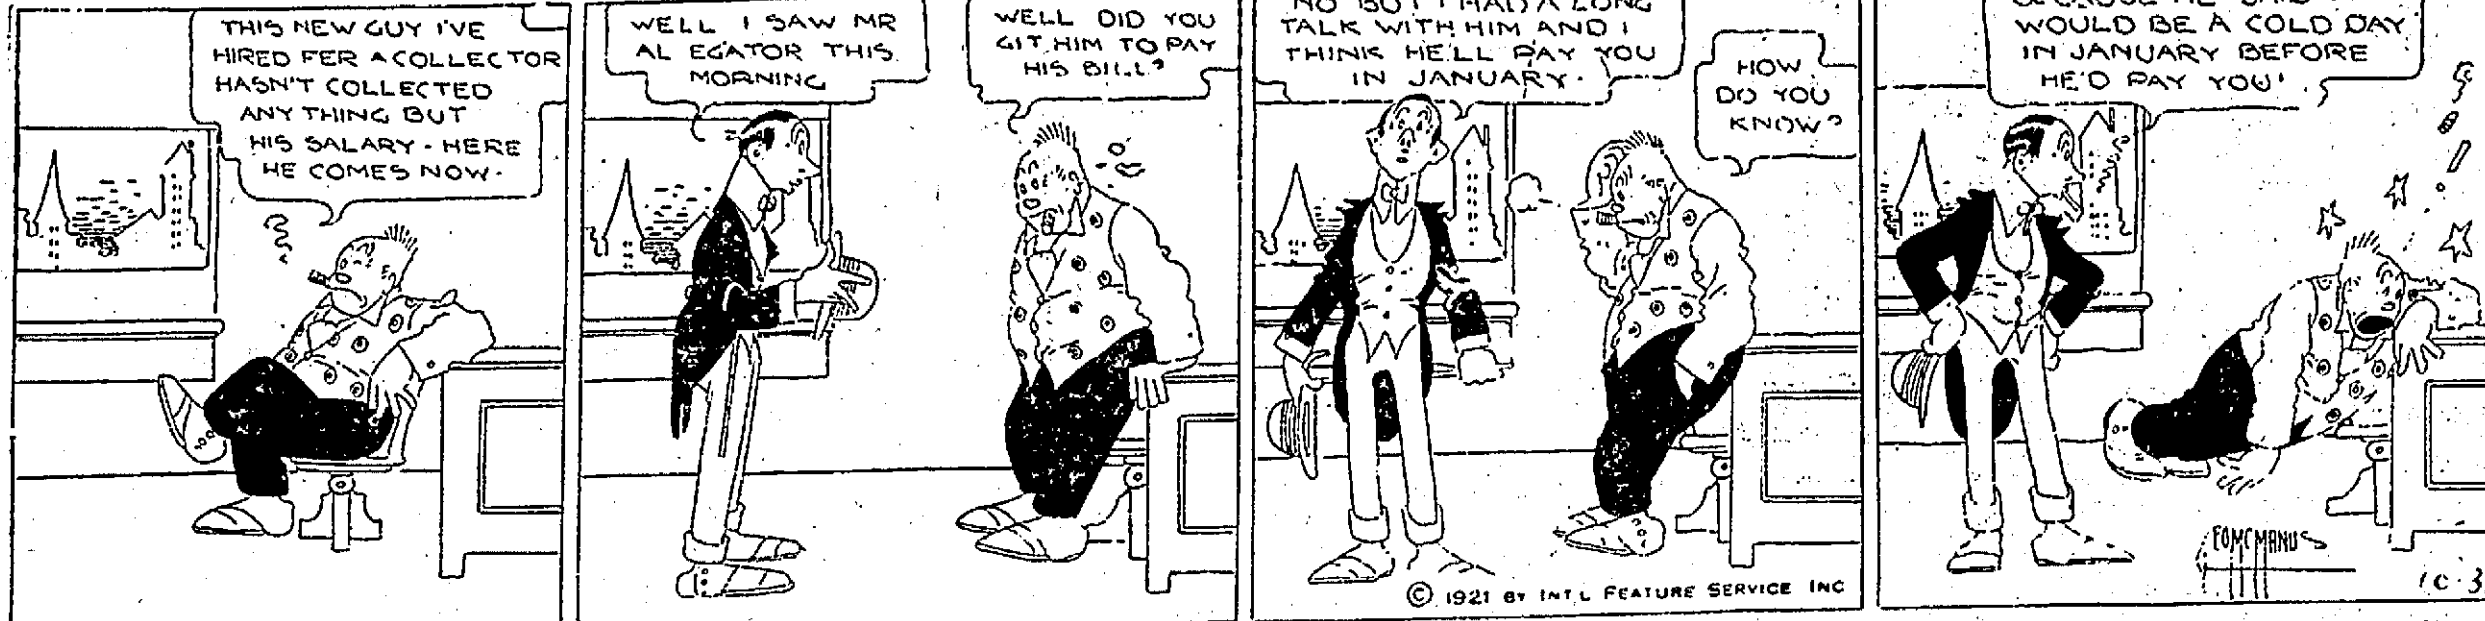

Madison—Monday was Beloit day in federal court.
Mary Sterling, Mrs. Lauretta Jones and Herbert Jones, all colored, all of Beloit, appeared before Judge C. Z. Luce to answer to charges of violations of the United States prohibition laws.
Mrs. Jones indicated her desire to plead guilty. Judge Luce suspended sentence until after the disposition of the case of her husband, Herbert, whom United States Attorney Daugherty characterized as more of an offender.
On account of the fact that Mrs. Jones was a reluctant party in the transaction and that this was her only offense, her attorney asked for leniency. Daugherty recommended that only a fine be imposed.
The case of Lauretta's spouse, also charged with having maintained in his possession and maintaining a building, a nuisance, went over until Monday afternoon. Herbert had entered a plea of not guilty.
Charges against Elizabeth Jenkins, Beloit, who was indicted about two years ago for sending nonmailable matter through the mails, was dismissed by Judge Luce on motion of the United States attorney.

ACTIVITIES START AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Tonight's the night. The night for what? For things to begin in the recreation department of the Appleton Woman's club. All girls who signed up for gymnasium classes will meet at 7:15 in the high school gymnasium. Class periods will be dispensed with for the first meeting and all classes will meet together at 7:15.
All drama club girls will meet at the Woman's club at 7:15 Monday night for a short committee meeting. Girls who have signed up for bowling will meet on the nights for which they have signed this week. Teams have already been formed for Monday and Tuesday nights on Arcade alleys, Monday and Wednesday on Eagle alleys. Most of these teams are small and have room for more girls while other teams will be formed on Thursday and Friday evenings.
The first meeting of the girls who have signed up for Social Thursday club will take place on Oct. 13.

FINAL REHEARSAL FOR PEACE PAGEANT

Sectional Meetings Will be Held for Pageant Presentation Friday

Rehearsals for The Red Cross of Peace, the pageant which will take place on Friday evening, Oct. 7 in Memorial chapel under the auspices of Outagamie chapter of the American Red Cross will be held 2, 4 and 7:30 Wednesday and at 7 o'clock Thursday, which is a dress rehearsal for all those taking part in the pageant. The solo parts of the pageant rehearsed Monday afternoon at Lawrence Memorial chapel under the direction of Mrs. L. H. Moore. Miss Alice Barrows, director of pageantry for the American Red Cross, will be in Appleton on Wednesday to assist Mrs. Moore.

Schaefer Bros. Store will be closed Tuesday afternoon, owing to the death of Mrs. P. C. Schaefer's father, Mr. Cornelius Steenis.

who did Red Cross work during the war on Wednesday afternoon while Mrs. J. H. Melhinch will take charge of the children of the Junior Red Cross on Wednesday afternoon. In the evening, Mrs. Howard Russell's group, representing the period of 1860-1864, Mrs. Bert Dutcher's group with the Red Cross of War and Columbia, Carleton Sackler's section with the Red Cross of Peace and the soldier, Mrs. George Puth's Red Cross office scene and Mrs. Olin Meade's assembly will rehearse at the high school Wednesday evening. Thursday evening will be a dress rehearsal and will include the music. Practically all plans for putting on the pageant are completed.

2 WOMEN AND 2 MEN TAKEN IN RAID

Police entered the Briggs Hotel at 145 Sunday morning and arrested C. L. Kimball of Neenah, C. L. Ford of Milwaukee and Mary Seymour and Annie Therman of Menasha. The arrests were the culmination of an automobile drive and liquor party at the beach. The four were held in the police station until 11 o'clock Sunday morning, when the men were released. Kimball and Ford were taken into municipal court Monday morning, pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness and paid fines of $25 and costs, amounting to $28.35 each. The women pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct and were fined $10 and costs amounting to $14.50.

PETERSEN ALSO TO ADDRESS VETERANS

Oney Johnston post of the American Legion will be honored doubly Monday evening, for it is announced that Austin A. Petersen, state adjutant, will accompany State Commander E. J. Barrett here to address the veterans at 8 o'clock in Elk hall. Important business is to come before the meeting, after which there will be some professional entertaining that will be a surprise to those who attend. Lunch is to be served. The Sheboygan men will be guests of the executive committee at a dinner at 6 o'clock in the Sherman house, where they will confer on state matters.

THIS CONTRACTOR SEEMS TO BE HAVING TROUBLE WITH HIS HELP

GIRL LEADERS HOLD THEIR FIRST CLASS

The first classes for members of the Campfire and Scout council of the Appleton Women's club will take place Tuesday night at the Knights of Columbus hall over Sugerman's clothing store. The first class is for campfire leaders at 7:30 followed by a joint class of the campfire and scout leaders at 8 o'clock with the class for scout leaders alone at 8:30.

Miss Emily Adams who has done considerable work with Girl Scouts and some with camp fire groups will have charge of the classes. It is the plan to give the leaders material during the classes to furnish two meetings program for their groups. Girls who are interested in taking charge of either a campfire or scout group will be welcomed to the council as many groups of younger girls have formed but have not been provided with leaders.

Cars Damaged
In backing his auto from the curb on College-ave., Saturday, Hugo Schuler of 902 Perry-st. collided with a machine driven by Joseph Shea. The gasoline tank on Schuler's machine was dented and a broken rim and fender was the damage to Shea's car.

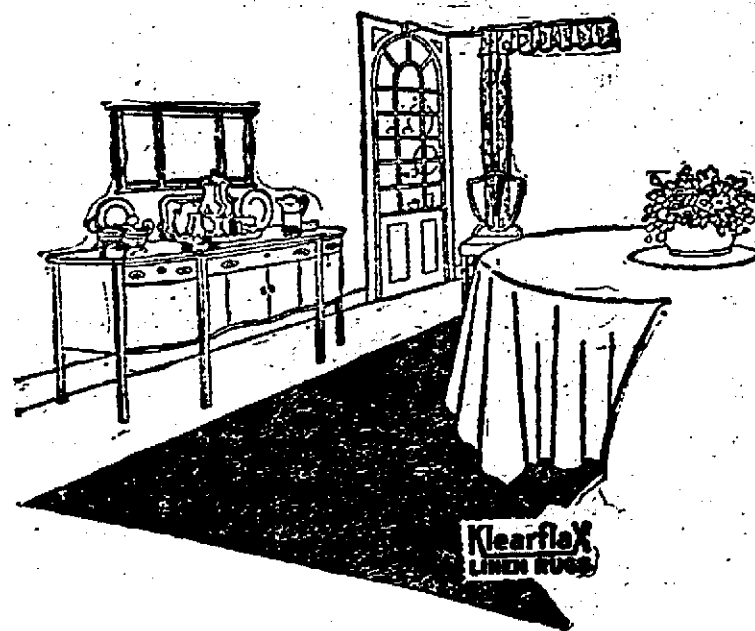

FEELING RAN HIGH AT N.-P. LEAGUE DEBATE

Least feeling at the meeting might cause a free-for-all fight, no decision was announced at the debate in Kaukauna auditorium Sunday evening by Attorney Leo P. Fox, Chilton, and Frank Shoemaker, Appleton, on the question, "Is the Non-partisan league detrimental to the people?" This was the third debate, the two men had staged on this question, and their personal animosity manifested itself so strongly that a clash was feared. State Senator Julie H. Deanner, Neenah, acting as chairman, managed to keep the contestants within their dignity, however. The decision was left to the audience.

Klearflax Linen Rugs

The Most Practical Modern Floorcovering

Just imagine your floor covered with pure linen—as genuine linen as your snowy damask or fine linen handkerchiefs, only coarser. Nothing could wear better. A Klearflax rug gives just such a floorcovering.

As these rugs are closely woven, two sided and made entirely of linen they have all the durability of the strongest textile fiber known to man. Klearflax Rugs are of a generous thickness, nearly four pounds to the square yard, a weight that deadens noise, lies perfectly flat and affords soft walking.

Linen is absolutely moth proof, which makes Klearflax Rugs immune in any place. A Klearflax can be left unused for years with perfect safety. These rugs are the only floorcoverings that actually improve with wear—grow softer, more beautiful and silk like with continued use.

Klearflax rugs come in nine one-tone colors, gray, medium and light blue, taupe, mole, chestnut, sand, green and rose. The price list below shows how inexpensive they are—

Size 27 by 54 inches	$ 4.50	Size 6 by 9 feet	$23.
Size 3 by 6 feet	$ 8.	Size 8 by 10 feet	$34.
Size 4 1/2 by 7 1/2 feet	$14.50	Size 9 by 12 feet	$45.

"WHAT GOES UP— MUST COME DOWN!"

Thus it was in our childhood games. Everybody duck! Look out! Low bridge! DO YOU REMEMBER IT?

Today we studied up the price-history of an article which had not shown much of a decline from the top price during the war.

As dry-goods as a whole have declined from the high prices between 30% and 40%, we could not see WHY this particular article failed to show some price-reduction.

But a study of old price lists shows this—THERE HAD BEEN NO PRICE ADVANCE AT ALL during the war period.

This article had held to its low price-level because of a largely increased production and demand. Consequently its manufacture and distribution was less costly. It was DISTINCTLY AN EXCEPTION TO THE GENERAL TREND OF PRICES DURING AND SINCE THE WAR.

The old formula is, "What goes up—must come down." THIS PARTICULAR ARTICLE NEVER WENT UP. Therefore it cannot be expected to cancel a price-rise that never occurred.

But the things that DID go up are SURELY COMING DOWN. There are literally hundreds of items in dry goods and wearing apparel that are selling today at from 30% to 40% less than the identical qualities brought last year.

Is a Bustle of Preparation for Making the Home a Fortress Against King Winter

Your home has been a delightful place this summer—surrounded with summer flowers and flooded with summer sun. That season is gone and the months of sharp winter blasts and cold winter nights are ahead.

In order to bring cheer and color within and shut the bleakness out—much must be done. There are blankets to be considered, perhaps new china for holiday guest gatherings, bright hangings for the windows and warm toned rugs for the floor. All are important contributions towards the air of warmth and comfort you desire in a winter home. We have set this week aside as a time of preparation for winter.

New Laces that will make your Draperies More Distinctive Windows are very important in the winter house — and they are easily draped with Quaker Laces. The three Quaker creations we mention here are unusually distinctive—

Have You Windows of Varying Widths?

Quaker Sectional Craft-Lace will solve your problem of curtaining them in each instance. It is designed in a series of sections, each a complete and perfect design motif. From 60c to $1.75 per section!

Amerex Net

The fact that in Amerex Net, the design is emphasized by the extreme transparency of the fabric makes it the most individual type of window lace. 60c to $2.25 a yard.

Casement Craft Lace

In this lace a shadowy design seems to be insinuated rather than woven into the net ground. It is $3. a yard.
